

Peace on borders ensured economic progress: Khatana

BJP MP Er. Gulam Ali Khatana during a programme at Nowshera.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
NOWSHERA: BJP MP Rajya Sabha Er. Gulam Ali Khatana has said that peace on borders has resulted into economic progress in the border areas and people are now reaping the benefits by leading a peaceful life and indulging in daily chores without any fear. He said that peace on borders has been ensured by the tireless efforts of PM Narendra Modi who has shunned the policies of appeasement.

Addressing various programmes including beneficiary Sammelans, Sampark Se Samarthan and BJP party leaders at Dabbar Seri, Lam, Bakori Budhal in Rajouri border district as part of 9 Saal Bemisaal on completion of 9 years of Modi govt, MP Gulam Ali said that people living on borders lived a life under fear of shelling, terrorist violence, firing from across the border but PM Modi ensured that cross border shelling and firing ends and people live in peace. He said that on the other hand Modi govt. launched major economic initiatives, road and rail connectivity besides Atma Nirbhar Bharat, Make in India, Start up initiatives which gave boost to economic activity and job creation in the country.

He said that Ayushman Bharat scheme is a blessing for the poor who can now get treatment in best hospitals upto 5 lakh rupees free of cost. Otherwise people would beg for medical treatment and many would die in harness. The scheme has been implemented without any discrimination against any religion caste, rich or poor.

Er. Gulam Ali urged the people to strengthen the hands of PM Modi for a rich prosperous and developed India.

Prominent among others present were Neena Sharma, district president, Jugul Dogra, Sangeeta Sharma DDC, Neena Sharma BDe, Maqsood Choudhary, Dimple Sharma, Sarpanch, Ravinder Sharma Mandal president, Kasturi Lal, Rakesh Raina.
