Besides these, there is ICAR and Veterinary Council quota of 39 seats and state govt quota of 08 seats which is over and above the sanctioned strength of seats. This year the number of candidates was the highest as compared to last year. The applicants were 32.3 percent more and there was 42.5 percent increase in candidates appearing for the test as compared to the year 2022. The test was conducted smoothly with appreciable support of the staff and the Principals and Deans of the above mentioned institutions. The university Flying Squad consists of Dr. Rakesh Nanda, Director Education; Dr. S. K. Gupta, Registrar; Dr. B. C. Sharma, Dean, PoA visited the centers to oversee the conduct of the entrance examination, said Prof Rajinder Peshin, I/C University Examination Cell, SKUAST-Jammu. The university will also upload the answer key on the university website. Besides, the result, schedule of the counseling and other updates shall be available on the university website www.skuast.org. The university also seeks objections to the answer key of the entrance test within a stipulated time after uploading the same on the university website. The students were allowed to take with them a carbon copy of the answer sheet for their record.
