Kavinder meets Sambit Patra, discusses Manipur situation

STATE TIMES NEWS
BHUBANESWAR: Bharatiya Kavinder Gupta, senior BJP leader and former deputy Chief Minister, met Sambit Patra, the National Spokesperson of the party and discussed several pressing issues concerning the present scenario in Manipur. The meeting aimed to address the challenges faced by the state and explore potential solutions to ensure its development and prosperity. Notably, Sambit Patra, who is in-charge of North East, has recently concluded his extensive tour of the North East region. Both the senior leaders deliberated on various matters, including infrastructure development, economic growth, and welfare initiatives to uplift the lives of the people in the state. Later, Kavinder called on saints of Swami Narayan Mission and laid stress on strengthening Sanatan Dharma comprising eternal principles of Hinduism. He said that Sanatan Dharma embodies a vast cultural heritage that has been passed down through generations. Recognizing its significance, Kavinder Gupta called upon the youth to step forward and actively engage in its preservation. He emphasized that by embracing and cherishing this cultural heritage, the youth can contribute to the continuity of values, traditions, and wisdom inherent in Sanatan Dharma. Kavinder utilized the occasion of meeting with Swami Dayanand Sadhus for raising awareness about the significance of Sanatan Dharma and inspire the younger generation to actively participate in its preservation. By doing so, he envisions a future where the timeless principles of Sanatan Dharma continue to thrive, fostering a strong sense of identity and cultural pride among the youth. During the culmination of his week-long tour in Balasore, Odisha, Kavinder paid a visit to the residence of Gen (Retd) Ramkrishan Sahu as part of intellectual meet under the ongoing 'Sampark Se Samarthan' Abhiyan in connection with 9 years of Modi Government at the Centre. This initiative focuses on establishing meaningful connections and garnering support from influential figures who can contribute to the progress of the nation. Kavinder Gupta spoke about the transformative nine years of Modi rule in the country, highlighting the government's achievements and its vision for a stronger and prosperous India.
