SHA advises patients to call toll free numbers regarding treatment under Ayushman scheme

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: The Jammu and Kashmir State Health Agency (SHA) on Wednesday informed that the private empanelled hospitals are key stakeholders in implementation of free treatments to the beneficiaries under the Ayushman Bharat scheme.

As per a communicate received here today in this regard, the SHA stated that in the past two years, the private Hospitals have been paid regularly as per the guidelines of the scheme without any interruption. The primary cause of the delays in payments to the private empanelled hospitals is the ongoing legal proceedings involving IFFCO-TOKIO General Insurance Company for the premature attempt to exit from contract from 15th March 2024, which was initially set to run until March 2025 (contract is for 3 years tenure). The document added that government of Jammu and Kashmir is acutely aware of the issues concerning delayed payments by the Insurance company IFCO Tokio to the private empanelled hospitals and dialysis centers under the AB-PMJAY/SEHAT scheme. It fully comprehend and acknowledge the financial strain these delays have imposed on our healthcare partners due to non payment from the side of IFFCO Tokio. The empanelled private hospitals have also sought interim relief from the Hon'ble High Court and are fully ceased of the legal matter. "The Government of Jammu and Kashmir has already engaged in extensive discussions with these private healthcare providers and has assured them of a timely resolution of the payment-related issues. SHA has assured all the private empanelled hospitals that their money is safe and secured and the Government ensures that all pending payments are cleared as swiftly as possible. SHA expressed heartfelt gratitude to the private empanelled hospitals and dialysis centers for their unwavering support and commitment in implementing the scheme, despite not receiving payments since March 15, 2024. SHA appeal to all the empanelled private hospitals to continue treating patients under the scheme and discharge their responsibility as a responsible partner under the scheme", read the communique. J&K SHA deeply regret the inconvenience caused to the empanelled hospitals and dialysis centers and appreciate the patience and understanding of our healthcare partners during this challenging period. Rest assured, the Government remains steadfast in its commitment towards supporting the empanelled hospitals and ensuring the uninterrupted delivery of healthcare services to beneficiaries across the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir. SHA has urged upon all the empanelled hospitals and dialysis centers to continue their invaluable services to the public emphasizing the critical importance of patient care and public well-being, as it is working diligently to resolve the issues. The health and well-being of citizens of J&K remain the top priority, and SHA is committed towards upholding the objectives of the Ayushman Bharat-Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana/SEHAT. The government of Jammu and Kashmir will take all necessary steps and ensure that all patients get desired treatments free of cost under the scheme and the scheme shall continue without interruption. The patients are advised to call the toll free number 14555 or call centre 104 for any assistance related to their treatment under the scheme.

Vice Chancellor SKUAST-J unveils AgriThon 2024

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Prof. B N Tripathi, the Vice Chancellor of Sher-e-Kashmir University of Agricultural Sciences and Technology (SKUAST)-Jammu, announced the inaugural AgriThon 2024 in fostering innovation and collaboration in the agricultural sector, particularly in the Union Territories of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh. "The primary aim of AgriThon 2024 is to inspire students and entrepreneurs to develop innovative solutions for real-world challenges in agriculture and allied sectors," Prof.

Tripathi said in a press conference here on Wednesday. He said that the event invites participation from students and faculty members of higher education institutions across J&K and Ladakh, as well as entrepreneurs from the region. Participation is free of cost. "Participants can submit concept notes aligning with one of four thematic areas: Livestock, Dairying, Poultry, and Fish Farming; Crop and Horticulture Farming; Farm Mechanization, Digital Agriculture, and Automation; and Post-Harvest Processes, Value

Addition, Supply Chain, and Logistics," Prof. Tripathi said adding that the last date for submitting concept notes at level I is June 25, 2024. The final event will take place at SKUAST-Jammu, Main Campus Chatha, he said adding that each team will have 15 minutes for their technical presentation. Screened ideas will be evaluated by a high-level committee based on various criteria, he said adding that winners from each thematic area will receive cash prizes and citations. "The total cash prizes amount to Rs. 7.40 lakhs, with awards for the first four positions. All screened applicants who appear for the final presentation will receive a certificate of participation," he said. He informed that a dedicated portal for AgriThon 2024 has been launched to facilitate smooth submission of concept notes and ensure transparency in proceedings. Registration can be done online through the provided portal or QR code. Prof. Tripathi encouraged eligible students and entrepreneurs to participate actively, contributing to the advancement of the agricultural sector in the region. The event was attended by statutory officers, including Deans and Directors, and queries from the press and media were addressed by Dr. Amrith Vaid, Director Extension, and Dr. Hema Tripathi, Associate Director Extension & Organising Secretary. Dr. Manish Kumar, e-platform organizer, Dr. Vikas Sharma, PI NAHEP & Organising Secretary, Dr. Punit Choudhary, and Dr. Pawan K Sharma, Co-Organising Secretaries, were also present during the conference. JU organises an awareness session on drug awareness for hostel boarders

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Jambu Lochan Boys Hostel, University of Jammu (JU), on Wednesday hosted an informative and interactive session on drug awareness and control. Ajay Sharma, SP South, Jammu & Kashmir Police, led the session. Prof. Lalitsen Sharma, Provost Hostels (Boys), guided this insightful event with support from Dr. Satyapriya and Dr. Nitam Sharma, the warden and resident warden, respectively.

The goal of the session was to arm students with the information and tools they need to resist peer pressure and make wise drug-related decisions. In this address, Ajay Sharma emphasised the importance of educating students about the dangers of drug use and promoting healthy, drug-free lifestyles. Recognising the complex and multifaceted nature of the drug crisis, the resource person suggested a strategy that encompassed prevention, education, treatment, and enforcement for reducing drug abuse and its devastating impacts on individuals, families, and the community at large. A highlight of the event was a motivational interaction by Ajay Sharma, who inspired the students to focus on their careers and personal goals, emphasising the importance of making healthy choices that support long-term success. He opined that social change can only occur at the grassroots level when the youth of today are self-driven, focused, and balanced in their life pursuits. The event was well-received by the students and expressed gratitude for the valuable information and support provided.

Uday, Hari Singh seek people's support for upcoming Assembly elections

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Uday Bhanu Chib, National IYC General Secretary and former Youth Congress President of Jammu and Kashmir, along with Hari Singh Chib, Vice President of the Jammu and Kashmir Pradesh Congress Committee (JKPCC), have called for widespread support of general public for the upcoming Assembly elections in Jammu and Kashmir. They emphasized that the present administration has failed to provide basic amenities and has not met the expectations of the general public. During a series of Nukkad Meetings held at Keran Ward No. 63 of JMC and Patian of Panchayat Keran in the Jammu North Assembly Segment, Uday Bhanu Chib and Hari Singh Chib rallied Congress workers and people of the area, urging them to ensure the victory of the Congress party in the ensuing Assembly elections for a prosperous future. The meetings were also attended by Som Nath Sharma, former Block President of Pata Paloura. At Patian, the meeting was organized by Harbans Lal, while in Keran Ward No. 63, the arrangements were made by Pritam Singh and Ashok

Sharma. The gathering in Keran was notably addressed by Keran Wala Baba, a revered figure with a significant following in both Jammu and Punjab, further bolstering the event's impact. Speaking at the meetings, Uday Bhanu Chib criticized the present dispensation, stating, "The present administration has failed to provide even the most basic amenities to the people of Jammu and Kashmir. The proxy Government of BJP in J&K has miserably failed to live up to the expectations of the general public. It's time for a change, and we need the support of every citizen to bring about that change." Hari Singh emphasized the importance of collective effort, "We appeal to all our workers and supporters to come together and work tirelessly to ensure the Congress party's victory in the upcoming Assembly elections. Together, we can build a brighter and more prosperous future for Jammu and Kashmir." Others present in the meetings included Parshotam Singh, Madan Singh, Ahok Sharma, Pappu, Kailash, Fakir Chand, Neeta, Surinder Kumar, Punny, Jung Bahadur Singh, Kaka Ram.
