

REMEMBRANCE 13TH DEATH ANNIVERSARY

It has been thirteen years since you left for heavenly abode but the time is not the healer of forgettable and unbearable loss. Your immense presence is felt in every moment of your life. Your memories and noble qualities will remain a source of inspiration to all of us. You may be gone from our sight but never from our hearts.

Awareness programme on 'Women Empowerment' & 'Nasha Mukht Abhiyan' organised

STATE TIMES NEWS

RAMBAN: The Department of Social Welfare, Ramban, held an impactful awareness programme aimed at empowering women and combating substance abuse. The program highlighted several key initiatives, including Sankalp, the One Stop Centre Women, and the Nasha Mukht Abhiyan.

District Social Welfare Officer Ramban, Rahul Gupta, underlined the ongoing efforts to support and empower women, as well as to address critical social issues like substance abuse. Under the guidance of Deputy Commissioner Ramban, Basheer-Ul-Haq Chaudhary, such awareness programs are regularly conducted to foster a safer and more supportive community.

The DSWO said that Sankalp is a comprehensive program designed to empower women by providing them with diverse opportunities for growth and development. Through various skill-building activities and support services, Sankalp aims to uplift women and enable them to become active contributors to society. He said that One Stop Centre Women, Ramban, is playing a crucial role in assisting women in distress. The OSC provides a range of services, including medical support, legal assistance, and counseling, ensuring women in need have access to comprehensive care and protection.

During the event, a dedicated paramedical staff member from OSC Ramban, Arti Devi, educated attendees about the 'Nasha Mukht Abhiyan' campaign. This campaign focuses on raising awareness about the severe consequences of drug abuse and promoting a drug-free society. The Resource Persons emphasized the importance of community involvement in tackling substance abuse and highlighted the District Administration's commitment to this cause.

CHC Marwah launches Digital Urine and Blood Analyser

STATE TIMES NEWS

KISHTWAR: In a significant step towards enhancing healthcare services in the remote Aspirational Block of Marwah, the Community Health Center (CHC) Marwah has introduced a state-of-the-art digital urine and blood analyser. This advancement is part of the district's ongoing efforts to strengthen health facilities under the dynamic leadership of Deputy Commissioner Kishtwar, Dr. Devansh Yadav, and Chief Medical Officer Kishtwar, Dr. Rajinder Kumar.

The new digital analyser, which is powered by solar energy, promises to revolutionize diagnostic capabilities in this far-flung region of Marwah Sub Division. The device is user-friendly, as any medical staff can easily make use of these digital machines and delivers instant test results, making it an invaluable tool for healthcare providers. The analyser facilitates a variety of tests including Hemoglobin (HB), urine analysis, blood sugar, bilirubin, cholesterol, creatinine, uric acid, SGOT, and SGPT. The Lab technicians besides dedicated para medical staff of such CHCs have been provided with hands on training recently at District Hospital Kishtwar under the guidance of Medical Superintendent District Hospital Kishtwar Dr. Yudhvir Singh Kotwal. Dr. Krishan Singh Katoch, Block Medical Officer (BMO) Daechan, expressed his gratitude to the dedicated team whose relentless efforts have made this project a reality. "This digital analyser will significantly benefit the entire populace of Marwah by providing quick and accurate diagnostic services, thus improving overall health outcomes," he said.

The introduction of this advanced technology is expected to bridge the healthcare gap in Marwah, ensuring that residents have access to essential diagnostic tests without the need to travel long distances.

World Blood Donor Day observed in District Kishtwar

STATE TIMES NEWS

KISHTWAR: On the occasion of World Blood Donor Day, CMO Kishtwar, Dr. Rajinder Kumar and Medical Superintendent DH Kishtwar, Dr. Yudhvir Singh led a team of dedicated staff members from CMO Office Kishtwar and DH Kishtwar in a blood donation drive to commemorate World Blood Donor Day. 13 blood points were donated in the drive.

The team's selfless contribution towards this noble cause is a testament to their commitment to saving lives and promoting the importance of blood donation. In addition to the blood donation drive, CMO Kishtwar Dr. Rajinder Kumar conducted a pledge ceremony at ANM School Kishtwar, where students were encouraged to pledge their support for blood donation.

The event aimed to raise awareness about the significance of blood donation and inspire the younger generation to become active participants in this life-saving initiative.
