With JKP on qui vive, terrorists cannot have free run: Raman Suri

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) J&K Executive Member Raman Suri hailed the Jammu and Kashmir Police (JKP) for arresting Hakam Deen for harbouring and guiding terrorists who had attacked a bus in district Reasi in which nine people were killed and 41 injured.

lives for defending the nation or protecting people, and such cowardice incidents wherein the enemies of nation like Hakam Deen got innocent pilgrims killed for just Rs 6000 won't escape the clutches of our alert cops and will have to face the law of the land.

The BJP leader said that such black sheep, who took merely Rs 6000 to guide terrorists to spray bullets on innocent pilgrims in Reasi, need to be identified and nailed.

Raman Suri said, this arrest should send a warning amongst all that the JKP is alert and able to thwart any design of terrorists who would ever try to disturb peace in J&K.

He also appreciated SSP Reasi Mohita Sharma for constituting a team and zeroing in on the terrorist sympathiser.

The Union Territory, he added, has come out of that quagmire where people lost their children for no reason, and now that a ray of hope, prosperity, development, progress and peace is dawning here, such cowards like Hakam Deen and killing innocents, but the time has changed and with the elimination of separatists' lobby, the entire terror network stands dismantled.

This arrest is a warning for those who are harbouring terrorists or even thinking of helping them in any way, he added.

Raman further said that the Jammu and Kashmir Police has sacrificed many
