CWC rescues three minor children from labour

STATE TIMES NEWS

POONCH: In a significant operation led by the Chairperson of the Child Welfare Committee Poonch (CWC), in collaboration with the District Child Protection Unit Poonch (DCPU), Child Helpline Poonch (CHL), and the Labour Department, three minor children were rescued from various parts of the market where they were engaged in labor. The coordinated effort, spearheaded by the Chairperson, underscores the commitment of the CWC and associated agencies to protect children's rights and eliminate child labor.

The operation took place following intelligence reports and careful planning, resulting in the safe rescue of the minors. The children, all of whom were found working in shops under harsh conditions, were immediately taken into protective custody. They were then produced before the Child Welfare Committee to ensure their well-being and initiate further proceedings for their rehabilitation.

The Chairperson of the Child Welfare Committee expressed gratitude towards the staff of the DCPU, CHL, and Labour Department for their diligent work and cooperation in this critical mission. "The safety and future of our children are paramount. This operation reflects our unwavering dedication to ending child labor and ensuring every child has the right to a safe and healthy childhood," stated the Chairperson. The rescued children are now under the care of the CWC, which will provide them with necessary support and assistance, including counseling, education, and integration programs. The committee is committed to monitoring their progress and ensuring they receive the care they deserve.

Legal action will be taken against those responsible for employing these minors. The Chairperson affirmed that stringent measures would be enforced against the perpetrators in accordance with the law. "We will not tolerate any form of child exploitation. Those found guilty will face severe consequences," the Chairperson warned. This successful operation highlights the importance of vigilance and cooperation among various agencies to combat child labor. The Chairperson urges the public to remain alert and report any instances of child labor to the authorities to help protect vulnerable children from exploitation. For more information or to report any suspected cases of child labor, please contact the Child Helpline at 1098 or the District Child Protection Unit Poonch. It's also pertinent to mention here that the rescue drive conducted under the aegis of national commission of protection of child rights which is carried out throughout the country as Pan India Campaign Against Child And Adolescent Labour:

Faculty members along with students during the workshop.

STATE TIMES NEWS

RAJOURI: National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Government Degree College Dharmari organizes two days workshop on Yoga to celebrate International Yoga Day in which more than 80 NSS volunteers of the college, HSS Dharmari and other students are participating. The purpose of the workshop is to make the students aware about the physical, mental and spiritual benefits of Yoga. The workshop started with the inaugural function in which Master Balwant Singh, NSS Program Officer of Government Higher Secondary School, Dharmari was the Special Guest. Prof. Ajay Kumar, NSS Program, Officer of the college formally welcomed the guests and speakers of the occasion and introduced them to the audience and participants. In his introductory speech, he deliberated on the importance of organizing such workshop for bringing about positive changes in the lifestyles of the people specially the students. He further highlighted the role of Yoga in preventing the various diseases. During his address, he expressed gratitude to the worthy Principal of the college Dr. Preetpal Kour for her support in organizing the workshop.

Master Balwant Singh in his address and session focused on the importance of Yoga in grooming the physical and mental personality of the students. He further added that practicing Yoga in routine life can be very helpful in dealing with stress and pressure from the various corners of the society on students. He particularly focused on the basics and pre-requisites for doing yoga and their healthy benefits. He also appreciated the efforts of college administration for organizing such programs in the interest of the students of the far flung areas.

The day first of the workshop concluded with the third session taken by Prof. Balbir Kumar, who shared various experiences and quoted examples of the people who got huge benefits from Yoga in recovering from their long diseases like Asthma, Blood Pressure etc. He further added in his lecture that doing Yoga is a way of life now a days and we cannot live a healthy life without practicing Yoga in the present sedentary lifestyles. The vote of thanks was presented by Prof. Mohinder Singh, Assistant Prof. of Dogri. The whole Program was organized under the guidance of college Principal, Dr. Preetpal Kour and supervision of NSS Program Officer, Prof. Ajay Kumar.
