■ STATE TIMES NEWS
UDHAMPUR: As part of UT administration's extensive public outreach programme, Secretary Information Department, Rehana Batul, on Friday convened a public outreach programme cum grievances redressal camp at Kaghote, Rammagar. The mega event was attended by members of District Development Councils, former members of Block Development Councils, other PRI members besides locals from Kaghote and adjoining areas. Additional Deputy Commissioner Udhampur, Joginder Singh Jasrotia, IAS Probationer, Swati Sheemar besides senior officers of various departments were present on the occasion. On the occasion, various government departments including Agriculture, Horticulture, Health, Animal Husbandry, Sheep Husbandry, Social Welfare, Handicrafts and Dogra Haat have set up their awareness stalls. The Secretary inspected these stalls established to disseminate information about welfare and development schemes launched by the Central and UT government. She interacted with the officers and reviewed the progress on their respective schemes on ground. During her interaction with the general public and former PRI members, several issues and demands were raised for redressal. These issues inter alia included upgradation of Kaghote High School to Higher Secondary, missing revenue records, filling up of vacant teacher posts, functioning of water tank under JJM, scarcity of drinking water, sports stadium at Kaghote, road connectivity for far-off areas and repair and black-topping of roads. Besides, issues related to water, electricity and staff shortage in various institutions, establishment of industries in the industrial area, construction of KV school buildings, upgrading health and education facilities were also highlighted. The Secretary directed the officers to resolve the public's genuine demands on priority and submit a detailed report of pending issues for higher authorities' consideration. She emphasized that the main objective of the public darbar was to address day-to-day public issues and ensure effective implementation of centrally sponsored schemes on ground. During the programme, the Secretary sought feedback from the officers about department-wise flagship schemes and programmes. She reiterated the importance of providing better services and creating awareness about different departmental activities. She assured redressal of genuine grievances within the shortest possible time, emphasizing that the government's top priority is to ensure efficient and timely delivery of basic facilities to the general public.

Later, the Secretary handed over Maize sheller, power tiller, Brush cutter, key of tractor to beneficiary farmers.

Randhawa, others continue protest against NHAI authorities, demand construction of flyover on pillars Yuva Rajput Sabha extends support to protestors

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Keeping in view the livelihood of lakhs of people, Former Legislator and prominent social worker Vikram Randhawa and others continued their protest against the authorities of the National Highway Authority of India (NHAI).

Despite clear cut directions from the Union Minister Nitin Gadkari, the authorities of NHAI are hell bent to construct the flyover from Kunjwani to Narwal on blind walls instead of pillars. Expressing their anguish over the construction of flyover from Kunjwani to Narwal on blind walls, hundreds of protestors led by Vikram Randhawa were demanding the construction of said flyover on pillars.

The protesting people also blocked the vehicular movement on the highway.

However, Yuva Rajput Sabha led by its President also extended their support in protest against the NHAI authorities. The core group members of the Sabha also joined the protest. The protestors also stopped the construction work of the flyover on blind walls.

Raising slogans against the authorities of the National Highway Authority of India (NHAI), the protestors said that some influential people are behind the construction of the said flyover on blind walls and immediate steps should be taken to bring out the names of these people in public domain. The protestors said that the NHAI authorities are not listening to the demand of the people despite clear cut instructions by the Union Minister Nitin Gadkari. While speaking on the occasion, Randhawa said the construction of flyover on blind walls will effect the livelihood of around 10 lakh people, which is not acceptable at all. "We will leave no stone unturned to stop the construction of the said flyover on blind walls", Randhawa said and warned the NHAI authorities of dire consequences if the said flyover is constructed on blind walls.

"The Union Minister Nitin Gadkari had also spoken to the NHAI authorities in J&K and directed them to construct the flyover on pillars so that traders of the area do not suffer but the NHAI authorities even did not pay heed to the directions issued by the Minister," Former Legislator added. "The development works launched by the Narendra Modi led Central Government is appreciable. But, if the development work is effecting the livelihood of the people then it should be stopped immediately, he added. "As a part of Delhi-Amritsar-Katra Expressway, NHAI is constructing flyover from Kunjwani to Narwal on binding walls which is not acceptable to the traders of the area as it will result into closure of their trade activities", Former Legislator said, and demanded construction of flyover from Kunjwani to Narwal on pillars instead of blind walls. "NHAI authorities should immediately stop the construction work of said flyover on blind walls", Randhawa said.

"We are not against construction of flyover but NHAI should also take care of the concerns of the people and should construct the flyover on pillars instead of blind-walls," Former Legislator Vikram Randhawa added.

"We have been assured several times that the said flyover will be constructed on pillars instead of blind walls, but all turned fake", Randhawa said. "We will continue our protest till NHAI authorities will change its plan of constructing the flyover on blind walls", Randhawa said, adding that they will protest more aggressively if their demand of constructing the flyover on pillars is not redressed. Ajmer Singh, Pawan Chib, Joginder Singh, Raman Sharma, Dilawar Singh, Bashir Ahmed, Farman Ali, Amit Gupta Mohinder, Vijay Sharma, Sunil Kumar and many others were present during the protest.

Holy Amarnathji pilgrimage unites people of whole country: Ex-Mayor Jammu

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: It is an auspicious day that holy Amarnathji pilgrimage 2024 started on Friday from the Base Camp in Bhagwati Nagar.

This was stated by senior BJP leader and former Mayor of Jammu, Rajinder Sharma who was among the prominent personalities present at the flagging off ceremony of holy Amarnathji pilgrimage 2024 which was accomplished by the Lieutenant Governor of J&K, Manoj Sinha.

Sharma said that holy Amarnathji pilgrimage unites the people of the country as the pilgrims from all the corners of India and even from abroad joins this pilgrimage to get blessings of Lord Shiva. "People representing different religions and parts of country from Kashmir to Kaniyakumari contribute to the pilgrimage by establishing Langars and offering their services there and many others render their services as Ponywalas, Pithus, Palkivalas etc," the senior BJP leader maintained. This represents ethos of One Nation One India. He voiced for betterment for system for allowing urgent movements amidst the Yatra convoy as someone with medical emergency or the students going for exams should not be stopped from moving through the Yatra convoy as public was hold up on the road from 3 AM to 6 43 AM. The Former Mayor said that administration should also think over the route from Base Camp in Bhagwati Nagar to Jammu University route to Bagh-e-Bahu to bypass instead of taking the Yatra convoy to the city areas making certain restrictions which affect the normal life of Jammu people. "As the Yatra convoy today affected public movement, I as a former Mayor express regret to the people of Jammu and expect that such things should not recur," Sharma continued. He said that the administration should ensure that the Yatra convoy should not affect normal life and for vital movements the administration should issue passes.
