50 yrs after Emergency, Congress still bears burden: Chugh

'Those who murdered democracy now hypocritically claim to be its guardians'

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
SRINAGAR: In a step to bolster party unity and prepare for the upcoming Assembly polls, BJP National General Secretary and In-charge of Jammu & Kashmir, Tarun Chugh, convened a seminar at Church Lane in Srinagar on Friday.

Stressing the importance of grassroots organization for the upcoming Assembly polls, Chugh urged the workers to fortify the party's presence.

Reflecting on the 50th anniversary of the Emergency imposed in 1975, Chugh highlighted its lasting impact on Indian democracy, saying: "It has been 50 years since the imposition of the Emergency in this country. Yet, the Congress Party still bears the burden of this sin. Why do they become so agitated and restless whenever this issue is discussed? It is essential to tell the country why the Emergency was imposed."

Chugh recounted the events leading to the Emergency, beginning with the Allahabad High Court's invalidation of Indira Gandhi's election from Rae Bareilly. He said Indira Gandhi's election was invalidated by the Allahabad High Court, leading her to
