

NDA's victory people's blessings for PM Modi: Amit Shah

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: The NDA's victory in the Lok Sabha polls is the "blessing of people" for Prime Minister Narendra Modi who has worked hard over the past 10 years to fulfil the dreams of the poor, women, backward and the youth, Home Minister Amit Shah said on Tuesday. He also said this is the victory of Modi's marathon effort in the last 23 years of public life, without taking a single day off, without caring for himself, and working day and night only for the welfare of the country and the countrymen. He said the third consecutive victory has made it clear that the public's trust is "only with Modi".

"This victory of the NDA is a reflection of the people's unwavering faith in the leadership of Shri @narendramodi ji who has devoted his life for the country," he wrote on 'X' in Hindi in a series of messages.

Congratulating Prime Minister Narendra Modi, BJP president J P Nadda and party workers, Shah said the victory of the BJP for the third time is the result of the tireless hard work of party workers. "For BJP, its workers are its biggest asset. The hard work with which all of you have sought blessings of the people for Modi by going door to door, street to street, from North to South and East to West is truly commendable. I heartily congratulate all of you for this herculean effort," he said.

He said, "This victory of the NDA is the blessing of the people for the way Modi ji has worked hard in the last 10 years to fulfil the dreams of the poor, women, backward, deprived and youth of the country."

"This is the people's vote of confidence on Modiji's vision of a developed India. This public blessing is a blessing for the success of Modiji's work of the last decade for the welfare of the poor, revival of heritage, self-respect of women and welfare of farmers. With this mandate, New India is ready to give further momentum and strength to the development journey," he said.

Shah thanked the people of the country for giving the NDA the opportunity to serve for the third consecutive time under the leadership of Modi.

He also thanked people of Andhra Pradesh for "blessing the NDA alliance" in both the Lok Sabha and assembly elections.

"I congratulate our allies, Shri @nebn Ji(N Chandrababu Naidu), Shri @PawanKalyan, and the BJP Karyakartas, for this stupendous victory. The NDA, under the leadership of PM Shri @narendramodi Ji, is committed to fulfilling progress and development. Together, we will shape the new destiny of the state," he said.

Shah expressed his "heartfelt gratitude" to the people of Odisha, where BJP is going to form its maiden state government, for giving BJP the opportunity to serve the "holy land of Mahaprabhu Jagannath ji".

"This victory under the leadership of Prime Minister Shri @narendramodi ji will prove the resolve of 'Developed India, Developed Odisha'. I assure the people of the state that BJP will work with dedication for the all-round development of the state by promoting Odia language, Odia culture and Odia literature," he said.

Occasional hiccups aside, Nadda guided BJP through uncharted territories

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: The BJP won new allies and strung up a series of impressive assembly wins on the watch of party chief JP Nadda, consolidating its strongholds and expanding its footprint despite occasional setbacks.

With his term set to end shortly, the low-key leader from Himachal Pradesh would have liked to demit office on the high of having achieved yet another impressive Lok Sabha poll win. As it turns out, the BJP's victory has come with reduced numbers after the saffron party fell short of a majority on its own.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi's high praise for Nadda's leadership during his speech at the BJP headquarters on Tuesday, however, highlighted the acknowledgement in the party's highest echelon of his hard work and sincerity during his over four-and-a-half-year tenure so far.

The BJP-led National Democratic Alliance has crossed the halfway mark by winning 273 seats in the Lok Sabha elections, setting the course for a third consecutive term as prime minister for Modi despite the opposition's resurgence.

After the parliamentary elections were announced, Nadda held about 140 campaigns across the country's vast expanse, party sources said. Amid this gruelling schedule, he also convened about 70 organisational meetings with BJP workers and functionaries to galvanise the party's rank and file and ensure a unified front that aligned with the party's overarching objectives.

Nadda's political journey began with the Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad (ABVP), the students' wing of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS). He became president of the Bharatiya Janata Yuva Morcha (BJYM), the BJP's youth wing, in 1991.

Nadda, who holds a law degree, held key party posts, headed its election campaign in a host of states -- from Bihar to Uttar Pradesh, Kerala, Maharashtra and Punjab -- and also worked as a minister in BJP governments in his home state of Himachal Pradesh. He also served as a Cabinet minister in the first term of the Modi government.

The BJP chief is considered within the party as an epitome of political correctness, with his manners unfailingly polite in public and his attacks on rivals never triggering any unseemly controversy.

He enjoys warm relations with Modi, who was for a long time in charge of the party's affairs in Himachal Pradesh.

Nadda was elected to the Rajya Sabha in 2012 and made a member of the party's parliamentary board in 2014 when Shah took over as its president.

His steady rise through the organisation continued when Modi and Shah chose him to be the BJP's national working president in 2019.

He was made the party president in 2020 after Shah was inducted into Modi's cabinet and became the home minister.
