GGM Science College bids farewell to Dr. R.K. Bhat, Associate Professor of Physics

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Govt. Gandhi Memorial (GGM) Science College, Jammu, on Saturday hosted dignified farewell ceremony to honour Dr. Ramesh Kumar Bhat, Associate Professor of Physics, on his superannuation.

GGM Science College faculty according farewell to Dr. R. K. Bhat.

The event was marked by heartfelt tributes from colleagues, students, and staff who gathered to celebrate the legacy of a passionate educator, committed reformer, and courageous humanitarian. Dr. Bhat's illustrious academic journey spans 19 and a half years in School Education and 18 years in Higher Education. Throughout his career, he played a significant role in shaping the academic and personal growth of his students. Beyond the confines of the classroom, Dr. Bhat was an enthusiastic participant in co-curricular activities, guiding students in diverse fields and fostering holistic development. A visionary in educational reforms, Dr. Bhat contributed significantly to the implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP-2020) during his tenure at GCW Parade. Besides this, Dr. Bhat also served as NSS programme officer donated blood several times and also organised several blood donations during different tenures at different Colleges. Dr. Romesh Kumar Gupta, Principal of GGM Science College, in his message praised Dr. Bhat's exemplary service and added that Dr. R.K. Bhat is not only an exceptional teacher but also a beacon of values, integrity, compassion, and courage. His contributions to the college and to the education system at large are profound. We are proud to have had such a remarkable personality in our institution and extend our warmest wishes for his future. Dr. Vandana Khajuria, Senior Faculty Member while addressing on the occasion commended Dr. Bhat's dedication and added that Dr. Bhat is a rare combination of intellectual strength, humility, and social commitment. Prof.

Purshotom Singh Manhas also shared his appreciation and elaborated that Working with Dr. Bhat has been an honour. He exemplifies what it means to be a true educator; not just by teaching concepts, but by living values that students and peers alike can look up to. The entire college fraternity extended its deep appreciation for Dr. Bhat's unwavering dedication, inspiring service, and lifelong commitment to education and humanity. As he embarks on his well-earned retirement, his legacy will continue to illuminate the path for generations to come.

Students, faculty of GDC Bishnah visit Old Age Home in Jammu

Students and faculty of GDC Bishnah with inmates and officials of Old Age Home Jammu.

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: In a heartwarming initiative, four faculty members and 30 students from Government Degree College (GDC), Bishnah visited the Home for the Aged & Infirm (commonly known as Vridh Ashram) in Amphalla, Jammu. The visit aimed at fostering compassion, empathy, and respect for the elderly among the youth. The delegation was led by Dr. Geeta, Dr. Koshal Kiran, Shrutika Rajput, and Preeti Mahajan. The objective of the visit was to provide students an opportunity to interact with the elders, understand their life experiences, and learn valuable life lessons through the theme "What to Do & What Not to Do" when engaging with elders at home and in society. The elders-Toshi Devi, Ramesh Lal, and Rajinder Rajput-welcomed the visitors warmly. They shared their life struggles through stories, Bhajans, and heartfelt conversations, touching the hearts of all present.

Student participation was also notable, with Shivani, Arbaz Ahmed, and Nitin reciting Bhajans and actively engaging in the discussions. I.D. Soni, President of the Home, inspired the gathering by narrating motivational stories, including that of Abraham Lincoln. He emphasized that dedication, kindness, and perseverance can help anyone rise, irrespective of their background. He encouraged the youth to always be compassionate and helpful, as kindness ultimately returns to us in unexpected ways. The event was smoothly anchored by Dr. Geeta, while Dr. Dinesh Gupta, Honorary Secretary of the Home, expressed gratitude to Principal GDC Bishnah for facilitating the visit. Other dignitaries present included Vijay Gupta, Joint Secretary; R.C. Vaid; Sat Pal Sharma, Managing Committee Member; Vinod Kumar, Administrative Manager; and Dr. Rajinder Thappa, social activist and Life Member of IRCS Jammu. The visit concluded with mutual blessings exchanged between students and elders, making it a memorable experience filled with warmth, respect, and shared wisdom.
