BLSKS concludes 3-day historical Sudhmahadev cultural festival with devotional performance at Mantalai

STATE TIMES NEWS
UDHAMPUR: In a vibrant display of Duggar heritage, Bhartiya Lok Sangeet Kala Sansthan (BLSKS) concluded its 3-day celebration of the historical Sudhmahadev Mela 2025 with a grand devotional performance at Mantalai. The event, aligned with BLSKS's 497th Friday Series Musical Play titled "Bham Bham Bhole", aimed at preserving and promoting the traditional Duggar culture of Jammu & Kashmir.

The mega event was organized in collaboration with the Ministry of Culture, Government of India, Central Bureau of Communication (Ministry of Information & Broadcasting), and J&K Dharmarth Trust. Maharaj Parkash Cheba of Agni Akhara and Pujari of Shiv Parvati Temple, Mantalai, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. Other digni-taries present as Guests of Honour included Rajneet Singh Kotwal (SDM Chenani), Pankaj Singh Pahu (Tehsildar Chenani & Mela Officer), Som Raj (Principal, Govt. Higher Secondary School Sudhmahadev), Rakesh Manhas (Incharge Cultural Activities), and members of the Apaneswar Mantalai Temple Trust.

Dr. Karan Singh, Chairman Trustee of J&K Dharmarth Trust, along with other trustees including Ashok Sharma (IPS Retd.), expressed gratitude to BLSKS and the supporting departments-JK Academy of Art, Culture and Languages; Department of Information and Public Relations, Udhampur; and Department of Youth Services & Sports, Chenani for their contributions in making the event a grand success.

Speaking on the occasion, the Chief Guest praised the cultural revival efforts and emphasized the importance of Duggar folk traditions, particularly devotional music and dances. The event witnessed a huge influx of over 50,000 pilgrims, all gathered to seek the blessings of Lord Shiva and to enjoy the spiritually enriching performances.

The cultural program featured powerful performances on themes such as "Koun Kare Teri Aarti Bhole Ji", "Koi Aakhe Ram Koi Allah", "Mera Bholi Na Mane", "Shiv Nath Teri Mahima", and social awareness themes like "Swachh Bharat Ho" and "Savdhan Ae Bharatvasi". The event included skits, nukkad natak, and devotional songs, presented by renowned singers and performers like Usha Raina, Rajni Gupta, K.K. Joshi, M.C. Kotwal, Kuldeep Raj, Bindia Okheda, Master Deepak Kumar, and others. The program was also recorded and uploaded online to reach a wider audience. Welcoming the attendees, Dr. M.L. Dogra, Former Regional Director, Song and Drama Division, Government of India, highlighted the cultural and spiritual significance of the Mantalai Temple, believed to be the birthplace of Goddess Parvati and the site of her marriage to Lord Shiva.

He also mentioned the mystical underground Devak stream, considered as sacred as the Ganges, which originates at Sudhmahadev.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Pandit Romesh, Chief Pujari of Apaneswar Mantalai Temple, marking the successful completion of a deeply revered and culturally rich festival.
