LMD imposes Rs 15,000 fine on petrol pump for lesser delivery

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
POONCH: On the directions of Controller, Legal Metrology Department, Mohammad Akbar Wani, an enforcement team of officials from Legal Metrology Poonch and Rajouri under the supervision of Assistant Controller, Kewal Krishan, conducted surprise raids on various trade establishment including petrol pumps in the twin districts of Pir Panchal area.

During the checking, the enforcement team detected one nozzle of a petrol pump in Surankote area of Poonch which was delivering 30 ml lesser fuel in every five liter measure of fuel. The team immediately booked the management of the pump and seized the nozzle and stopped the supply of the fuel.

The management of the defaulter pump while confessing the lapses pleaded for composition of the case at department level.

The Assistant Controller, on assurance from the concerned that they will not repeat such offence in future, imposed a fine of Rs.15,000 on the pump and directed the management to check delivery of every nozzle at least thrice a day and in case of lesser or excessive delivery, immediately stop sale from such nozzle (s) and request the department for its recalibration.

The team directed the management of all fuel stations to keep a 5-litre verified measure at the premises so as to empower a consumer to check the delivery as well.

The Assistant Controller warned the Management of the concerned pumps to remain cautious in future and in case of any fault on their part they can be blacklisted.

PYC plays BJP Govt's apathetic attitude towards farmers

PYC members interacting with farmers.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

HIRANAGAR: J&KPYC President Uday Bhanu Chib along with Ajaz Choudhary, Vice President JKPYC and Romi Sharma, President District Kathua unit visited borders areas of Hiranagar and met with farmers to know about the problems being faced by them. The farmers apprised the J&KPYC President about the non-available of regular power supply due to which they are unable to give water to their corps which a matter of serious concern. They said that the department has only provided power three to four hours in a day. We are also unable to use power genset due to sky-rocketing pricing of diesel, they said, demanding rollback of diesel prices. They further apprised Chib over non-available of quality seeds from the Agriculture

Culture which will also effect on their crops.

Calling the B-JP Government at the Centre as the worst performing, Chib accused the J&K B-JP leaders of being apathetic to the miseries of farmers. Instead of working on doubling the income of farmers, B-JP has not showing its serious concern towards their genuine demands.

Giving patient hearing to the farmers, Uday Chib said that he would highlight their plights at appropriate level and assured that Congress Party will stand with them in the hour of crisis.

Those who accompanied the J&KPYC President included Dilwar Singh, District Vice President, Rahul Nagla, Mohinder Pal and Gagandeep.
