

Waqf Board organises mega Cleanliness drives at Makhdoom Sahib & Dastgir Sahib shrines Board to issue fresh guidelines for shrines' management to ensure cleanliness, foolproof management systems: Dr Andrabi

STATE TIMES NEWS

Srinagar: Jammu & Kashmir Waqf Board on Saturday organized a mega cleanliness drive at the shrines of Hazrat Makhdoom Sahib & Hazrat Dastir Sahib in Srinagar on Eid eve.

Chairperson of J&K Waqf Board Dr Darakhshan Andrabi supervised the drive which was organized in collaboration with J&K Fire & Emergency Services & Srinagar Municipal Corporation.

Waqf today issued orders to all the administrators in J&K to undertake cleanliness drives at all shrines under Waqf management so that we are ready with a clean atmosphere for Eid prayers at all locations.

Many fire-tenders were used to clean the campuses and stairs of these shrines utilizing adequate manpower from Waqf & Municipal Corporation.

sanctity and equality of all at our sufi shrines in all cases and for streamlining the system, concrete steps are being taken," said Dr Darakhshan.

Waqf Board Chairperson said that the system of offerings and donations was being corrected to stop all proliferation of these funds so that we are able to upgrade facilities at our shrines from the funds donated by the public at shrines.

"As a society, we need support from one and all to transform the management system at our shrines as this has been the public demand for decades in J&K," said Dr Andrabi.

She thrashed the earlier political regimes of J&K for the grave mismanagement of Waqf assets, properties and funds. "We have demarcated land for cancer Hospital in Srinagar and soon foundation laying for the same will happen," announced Dr Darakhshan.

DSS seeks protection for honest, deserving aspirants in SIs recruitment

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Dogra Sadar Sabha (DSS) has expressed shock at loss of lives due to natural calamity that occurred on Friday at Shri Amarnath Cave Shrine and conveyed condolences to next of kin of victims. While speaking during a press conference held at Dogra Hall Jammu on Saturday, Gulchhan Singh Charak, President DSS, also acknowledged immediate rescue and relief measures initiated by UT administration.

Earlier, in a special meeting of its Executive Committee of DSS, two minutes silence as "Shirdhajali" was observed in memory of unfortunate pilgrims who lost their lives at Amarnath cave shrine in a cloud-burst and for the former Japanese Premier Shinji Abe, who was brutally murdered in Japan.

Admiring LG's bold action to cancel corruption-ridden selection process of Sub Inspectors, DSS insisted that the interests of honest and meritorious aspirants, who were selected or could have been selected in a fair way, must not be compromised, otherwise many will be rendered overage for no fault of

She asked inmates to pay obeisance daily to seek blessings of the Almighty, as the Home is properly taking care of all their needs.

She also appreciated tireless sincere efforts put in by the Management of the home for welfare and comfort of inmates.

Prabhakar, described him as a great visionary who could foresee necessity of such a Home for aged and infirm in the ever changing society.

Prabhakar was a well-known social activist who made significant contributions for upliftment of needy, hapless and destitute persons, he added.

Pertinent to mention here that the Home was established on June 8, 1964 with single room, and thereafter was registered as a Society on February 20, 1965. It now has two full fledged buildings, having capacity to comfortably accommodate around 90 aged persons. At present, it has 49 inmates including 20 females.

This Home rendered glorious humble service for the last over fifty eight years to scores of poor, needy, destitute persons aged 60 years or above irrespective of caste, creed, religion, sex or region while adhering to saying of our scriptures 'Nar Seva is Naryan Seva'. Besides providing free residential facilities, necessities and amenities of life including medical care, the management of Home also tries to ensure individual attention, affection, sympathy and feeling of homeliness to inmates, which have been denied to them by their kiths and kins. A Physiotherapy Care Centre has also been set up for inmates and the facility has also been extended to other senior citizens as well, at nominal charges.

Besides representatives of some local NGOs as well as Members of the Society, Patron Prem Gupta, Vice President H S Manhas, Joint Secretary Vijay Gupta, Managing Committee Members Nirmala Zutshi, Pankaj Gupta, Vinod Kumar and Sat Pal Sharma also participated in the celebrations amidst following COVID appropriate behaviour.

World Population Day observed at GGM Science College

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: NSS unit of GGM Science College under the patronage of Principal Dr. Ravender Tickoo and guidance of NSS PO Dr Deepali Mahajan organized an awareness workshop to commemorate World Population Day 11th July to focus attention on the urgency and importance of population issues. This year's theme is "A world of 8 billion: Towards a resilient future for all - Harnessing opportunities and ensuring rights and choices for all". NSS volunteers on virtual platform spoke on several issues caused due to overpopulation. The increasing population also sheds light on health problems faced by women during pregnancy and childbirth, making the need for family planning, gender equality, and maternal health more important than ever. When there is a state of balance between the population and the available resources, it is known as the optimum population. This balance gets disturbed when the number of people increases or decreases in comparison to the availability of resources.

Overpopulation creates the problems like unemployment, shortage of food, low per capita income, problem of capital formation, high pressure, social problems, economic insecurity, social insecurity, increased pressure on land and environmental degradation.
