■ STATE TIMES NEWS
UDHAMPUR: President Municipal Council Udhampur (MCU) Dr. Jogeshwar Gupta tendered his resignation from the post of MCU President. In a written letter to higher ups, Dr. Gupta categorically said that due to non cooperative attitude of higher ups, he fail to redress the public miseries and Udhampur town has turned into a city of garbage and potholes. Dr. Gupta giving statements to media alleged that indifferent attitude of the higher ups force him to tender resignation from the president post of MCU. He said that due to shortage of Safai Karamcharis and required infrastructure, insanitary condition of the Udhampur town is badly hit. Town has turned as city of garbage and at every nook and corner of city there is filth, decaying garbage with foul smell. UEED failed to restore uprooted roads, street lanes and main holes damaged during laying of sewage pipelines, despite repeated requests. Ultimately he resigned from president post in the interest of town and public and submitted copy to Pr. Secy/com urban development and local body, Director local body, Jammu, Deputy Commissioner Udhampur and CEO MCU Udhampur for necessary action.

KATRA: Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Shrine Board (SMVDSB) on Friday organized an awareness workshop on "Sexual Harassment at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013" at Spiritual Growth Centre, Katra. The workshop aimed at creating awareness among the employees regarding various types of sexual harassments at work place and laws related to the same.

The session began with a welcome address by Mr. Navneet Singh, Addl. Chief Executive Officer, SMVDSB who briefed the importance of the session and underlined the need to create awareness about the Act to ensure that the female employees do not face any discomfort at work-places. The session was there-length. She further dwelt on the Vishakha Guidelines and gave insights about the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act 2013. She also shared the importance and working of the Internal Complaint Committee in the institutions and at the workplace to address the challenges of harassment and its prevention.

More than 50 female employees of SMVDSB from various cadres attended the workshop. The session was very interactive and the participants raised many queries and shared their observations and experiences. The session concluded with details of how any organization can take preventive measures against sexual harassment. Participants had become fully observed about the Acts and procedures laid down in preventing sexual harassment that create awareness. Noteworthy is that about 10 percent of the female employees constitute the strong workforce of the Shrine Board.

Mr. Anshul Garg, Chief Executive Officer, SMVDSB while appreciating such workshops said that every employee must be aware of the such laws and redressal mechanism as these sessions goes beyond the Act and covers what the precursors to sexual harassment are and how anyone can be a change agent, thus perpetuating an environment of safety, trust and fairness at the workplace. The formal vote of thanks was presented by the HRD Section of SMVDSB.

Langeh condemns desecration of Shiv Temple in Doda, seeks stringent action against miscreants

STATE TIMES NEWS
RAMBAN: Neelam Langeh, BJP leader and former MLA Ramban, has strongly condemned the fourth incident in the recent series of desecration of temples in Jammu and Kashmir with this incident of vandalizing a Shiv Temple in Doda District. He has sought stringent action against the miscreants behind such incidents.

It is pertinent to mention this is the fourth such incident of vandalism carried out at a temple since April. This Shiv temple is located in the upper reaches of Marmat, Doda, also known as 'Chota Mani Mahesh' and is just 10 km away from the last point of the road. As per reports, some people arrived in the dark of the night and vandalized the temple, causing damage to the Shiva idol inside the premises.

Hanuman idol in Kathua District. Such miscreants seemingly emboldened have now struck last night in Doda. He said that these incidents have not only hurt the sentiments of the Hindu community, but that of all the same people irrespective of the faith and religion they belong to.

Meanwhile the senior BJP leader also appealed to the people of all communities to maintain calm and not get provoked by the unholy acts of a few disgruntled elements in the society so that peace, law and order prevail.

In a statement issued to media, senior BJP leader said that it is quite unfortunate to find the trend of desecration of temples picking up in Jammu region that deserves condemnation in the strongest words.

Recalling the recent incidents, he stated that first there was desecration of a temple in Sidhra area of Jammu and thereafter the idols were broken by miscreants in Baderwah followed by breaking of
