

Public participation essential for peace: DSS

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: President Dogra Sadar Sabha (DSS), Th Gulchain Singh Charak, while addressing a session with its senior members, amplified the prevailing countrywide unrest with special reference to Kashmir, Kolkata and Rajasthan. There have been numerous threats to life elsewhere and the nation is undergoing a tense, disturbed state of life detrimental to the path of peace, progress and development, he said. He admired the role of security forces in successfully containing terror in Kashmir reducing it to barely surviving on Pakistani support system for its last breaths.

The former minister pointed out that the UT placed great hopes and trust into the happenings of post abrogation of Articles 370 & 35A. "We understand that the whole machinery needed an overhaul and that process is taking time. At the same time there are wide gaps between what is planned, declared, announced, notified and its ground deliverance. Corruption only seems to have changed hands. What is not 'greased', does not move. There is a total disconnect between the people and the ruling 'lordships', obviously, in absence of a popular government. The gap can be bridged if the bureaucracy comes out of the confines of their cozy chambers and for once go to public and behave like 'public servants'. 'Back to Village' programme has been archived with many such progressive plans and schemes launched from time to time. Bureaucrats are still used to their old 'dynastic rulers' practices. Many have dynastic fiefdoms within the chambers and corridors of power down to Babus & Daftaris.

Others present during the session included Col Karan Singh, Col Dr Virendra K. Sahi, Brig M S Jamwal, Gambhir Dev Singh Charak, C M Sharma, Rajesh, Yash Paul.
