

Recruitment scam should be probed in shortest possible time: Congress

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: JKPCC has questioned the Govt over the issue of selection list of Finance Accounts Assistant (FAA), as the selectees are agitating for the past two days, while the government is making silence.

In a statement, JKPCC Chief Spokesperson Ravinder Sharma has expressed serious concern over the huge scam in the recruitment of police Sub Inspectors affecting the career of over 97000 youth who had appeared in the selection test besides indications of similar other scams in other recruitments, putting the future of large number of candidates in dark, who have put in hard efforts, day and night,

Sharma said that the candidates of various recruitments are in great distress like Finance Accounts Assistant, Class IV and other selections which are in pipeline. He said that the Govt. should immediately clarify the position with regard to all other such selections and hold fair, independent probe into the bungling and corruption in the various selections at the cost of poor, genuine and meritorious candidates.

The probe should be time bound and result oriented in shortest possible time, in the larger interests of educated youth and those waiting for selections, he added.
