

J&K setting new records of development under Modi Govt: Sukhnandan

Lift Irrigation Scheme Sohanjana to be made operational for agricultural purposes only

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Senior BJP leader and Former Minister Choudhary Sukhnandan Kumar on Saturday said Jammu and Kashmir is shaping new records of development under the guidance of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

Sukhnandan, while addressing the gathering at Sohajana (Tawi Island Phallian Mandal in Marh constituency), lambasted the previous governments of the NC, Congress and PDP accusing them of misappropriating the funds meant for the development of these regions.

Choudhary Sukhnandan also invited Commissioner

Secretary Ashok Parmar to the spot to start Lift irrigation tion Scheme at Sohajana only for agricultural purposes.

Parmar assured the villagers to start the project at an earliest for the benefit of villagers.

The former minister enumerated various development works initiated in Jammu by the BJP government and said, "Under the guidance of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Jammu and Kashmir government prioritized the development projects related to Jammu and Kashmir and in no time it will witness world-class infrastructure with modern technology in every field.

Special emphasis has been laid on developing the underdeveloped areas, especially the far-flung and the hilly areas with difficult terrain, he said.

Sukhnandan said that under the Modi government all communities have been strengthened socially, economically and politically. He also spoke on the specific projects and policies of the BJP government that have provided benefits to the locals.

Besides, Ashok Parmar, the Chief Engineer Irrigation and Flood Control Umesh Manchanda, Sarpanch Balbir Singh Sohajana and other officers and prominent citizens of area were present.

Y V Sharma accuses Kashmir-based leaders of indirectly inciting communal passions, encouraging terrorism

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Jammu and Kashmir BJP on Saturday accused Valley-based political leaders of indirectly inciting communal passions, provoking violence and encouraging terrorism.

nation within the grand Indian nation, arousing communal and religious passions, Sharma said.

He also targeted the Kashmiri leaders over the exodus of the Pandits.

"Why did these leaders not make any effort to stop these migrations? Does it not show their tacit approval? If they are the real leaders of Kashmir, why have they failed to convince the people of Kashmir to ensure the safe, secure and dignified return of these helpless people to their homes back in Kashmir?"

Sharma said the government of India is using all its resources in the best possible way to win the hearts of the people and to ensure peace, prosperity, progress, development and goodwill of all in J-K. "The quick enhancement of facilities in almost all fields of activity like agriculture, horticulture, floriculture, local-self government, road connectivity and communication, tourism, governance, trade and industry, health and education, general amenities in the lives of the people etc are there for everyone to see," he added.

The rousing reception of the Amarnath Yatra pilgrims by the Muslim community in Kashmir and the rush of tourists at various tourist resorts are welcome steps. They show the confidence of the people in the security arrangements, the BJP spokesperson said.
