Former Minister Harsh Dev Singh and others during a public meeting at Chenani.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

CHENANI: Re-iterating the demand for early restoration of democracy in J&K and holding of early assembly polls, Harsh Dev Singh, Former Minister and senior AAP leader on Saturday said that the erstwhile state was being illogically and illegitimately deprived of popular govt in violation of constitutional guarantees as well as the 'obiter dicta' laid down by the Apex court over the subject. "A remote controlled system of governance could not be the solution for the woes and sufferings of the people of J&K. Its the local leaders and local Ministers and elected MLAs who could better address the concerns of their people and bail them out from their sufferings and pains. It has only led to peoples' alienation, said Singh. The outside bureaucrats and New Delhi leaders, despite their best of efforts, could not be the substitute for legitimate, elected govt which alone could address the peculiar problems of the new set up in J&K", asserted Singh. He was addressing public meetings in Omala, Kotti Bala and Cherri villages of Chenani constituency during his two days tour.

While the unprecedented power cuts and drinking water scarcity had made the lives of people a living hell, the proxy govt imposed by the centre was acting as a mute spectator. No concrete measures were being taken to address the chaotic situation which had created massive resentment all over the UT. The situation was the same with regard to other Deptts including Health, Education, RDD where corruption was at its peak with no takers for the genuine concerns of the aggrieved masses. Elected representatives therefore alone could be
