Kavinder hails termination of 3 Govt employees implicated in terror activities

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Senior BJP leader and former Deputy Chief Minister, Kavinder Gupta on Monday welcomed the dismissal from service of three government employees for their alleged terror links.

The senior BJP leader endorsed the government's decision of sacking the three employees after it was established that they were over ground workers having links with the Pakistan-based militant outfits.

"Like in the present case anyone found involved in such crimes will face the same fate and will have to confront the law of the land," he said, adding "the days of delinquent dispensations have gone now as no one having a slightest link with the terror edifice will be spared."

Under the Modi regime, he said there is zero tolerance for anti-national activities.

Modi Govt should ensure safety of Hindus & Temples in Pakistan: Shiv Sena

Demands arrest, extradition of Seema Haider

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Shiv Sena (UBT) Jammu-Kashmir unit strongly condemned the heinous acts targeting a 150-year-old Hindu temple in the main city of Karachi as well as the rocket launcher attack on a Hindu temple in Sindh, both carried out by Pakistan.

Taking serious note of these despicable acts, Shiv Sena sought that the Modi Government should take immediate steps to ensure the security of Hindus and temples in Pakistan, as well as the arrest and thorough interrogation of Seema Haider, who unlawfully infiltrated the Indian border.

Addressing a press conference at Party's Headquarters in Jammu on Monday, Manish Sahni, President Shiv Sena J&K stated that Hindus and religious sites in Pakistan are continuously being targeted. The Hindu population in Pakistan is rapidly decreasing, and there has been a surge in attacks on Hindu temples, he said. Sahni appealed to the Prime Minister Narendra Modi to take a strong stance on this act by Pakistan and immediately engage in talks with the Pakistan government to ensure the safety of Hindus and religious sites.

He also sought a complete severance of all relations with Pakistan and the immediate arrest and extradition of the infiltrator Seema Haider, who brazenly trespassed into the Indian border using illegal means.

Sahni emphasized that such reprehensible acts of cross-border infiltrations can be dealt with and put an end to, setting an example for others, perhaps better than anyone else. "Shiv Sena stands firm in its commitment to protect the interests and rights of Hindus and their religious freedom," he added.

Shiv Sena called for the immediate attention of the Modi Government to address this matter and ensure the safety and security of Hindus and temples in Pakistan, while also demanding the arrest and extradition of Seema Haider.

Sahni emphasized that Shiv Sena will continue to stand united in the fight against any injustice or threat to the Hindu community and will take all necessary measures to safeguard their interests. On this occasion president Kamghar wing Raj Singh, Mangu Ram were present.

DFCO organises stakeholders' workshop for price regulation

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Price Monitoring and Resource Unit, (PMRU) of Drugs & Food Control Organization (DFCO), J&K on Monday organised stakeholders workshop for price regulation at Conference Hall, Canal Road here.

Speaking during the workshop, Secretary Health, Bhupinder Kumar, who was chief guest on the occasion, emphasized that price regulation has a direct bearing upon making patient care affordable. He said that 34-42% of expenses incurred on healthcare is contributed to purchase of medicines.

The Secretary solicited close co-ordination between all stakeholders to share their observations through PMRU so that National Pharmaceutical Pricing Authority can come forward to exercise check over price rise. He highlighted the importance of awareness to disseminate the information related to this initiative.

The Secretary further added that mobile applications designed and developed by NPPA like "Pharma Sahi Dam" and "Pharma Jan Samadhan" and Integrated Public Database Management System (IPDMS) should be popularized through social media and other means.

Commissioner, Food & Drug Administration, J&K, Shakeel-ul Rehman, highlighted the human angle associated with the initiative. He said whoever comes in between patient care and price should be identified and penalized.

In her welcome address, State Drugs Controller cum Member Secretary, PMRU, J&K, Lotika Khajuria, highlighted about the importance of organizing this workshop in the context of Drug Price mechanism. She said that the proposal for setting up of J&K, PMRU was made against the backdrop of the lack of field level link between National Pharmaceutical Pricing Authority (NPPA), State Drug Controller's (SDC's) and subordinate enforcement authorities while monitoring drug prices.

Pankaj Kumar, Deputy Director, NPPA, Department of Pharmaceuticals, Union Ministry of Chemicals & Fertilizers, said that the Central Government is working tirelessly to reduce out of pocket expenses of common people. He further said that recently National Pricing Authority has capped trade margin for 42 select non-scheduled anti-cancer medicine under trade margin rationalization approach. During the workshop, Dr. Vishal R. Tandon, Professor, GMC, Jammu and Surinder Mohan, Deputy Drugs Controller, J&K presented the power point presentations on Drug Price Regulation under the provisions of DPCO, 2013.

Senior officers of health department, JKMSCL, Drug Control Organization, and pharma manufacturing and trade association attended the workshop.
