Accompanied by several officials, he also inspected the ongoing construction works in Sub-Division Paddar. SDM Paddar, Arun Kumar Badyal, DDC Member Paddar, Hari Krishan Chauhan, Tehsildar Paddar Satish Rana, BDO Paddar, Sanjeev Kotwal, XEN PWD R&B, Ravinder Kumar, SDPO Paddar, Manoj Kumar, SIO Paddar Vikram Parihar, AEE JPDCL Sudhir Sharma;

AEE PWD Aijaz Ahmed Gargoo and Concerned Engineer's of PWD R&B accompanied the Deputy Commissioner Kishtwar.

The primary objective of DC's visit was to review the preparations made by the concerned authorities for the seamless conduct of the Shri Machail Mata Yatra.

During his visit, he inspected the ongoing construction work of Yatri Bhawan, Sapphire Guest House and Mushroom Tents in Gulabgarh Paddar. He directed the authorities to work in double shifts and prioritize making the facilities available for pilgrims well before the start of the yatra.

SDM Paddar, Arun Kumar Badyal, was entrusted with

Emphasizing the administration's commitment to provide adequate facilities to the devotees, Dr. Yadav stressed on making adequate provision of healthcare, sanitation, water, electricity, langar points, accommodation, and security arrangements throughout the Shri Machail Mata Yatra. He urged all concerned departments to diligently adhere to the prescribed guidelines to ensure a seamless and enjoyable pilgrimage experience for the devotees.

Meanwhile, Deputy Commissioner, SSP, SDPO, Tehsildar Atholi, SHO, and other District Administration Officers participated in the "Annual Paddar Cultural Festival" organized by the Himalayan Buddhist Cultural Society at Gulabgarh Gompas.

The festival commenced with the lighting of the Chodney (lamp) by the Deputy Commissioner in the presence of SSP and President of the Himalayan Buddhist Cultural Society Paddar, Padma Laton, along with other senior officers.

The event featured captivating cultural dance performances and a showcase of traditional food, local weaving materials, clothes, food grains, masalas, medicinal plants, and more at the stalls. Paima Laton and the executive members led the festival, which saw participation from around 500-600 people.

The Annual Paddar Cultural Festival, initiated by His Holiness Gyalwang Drukpa Rinpoche on 22nd July 2018, has become a prominent platform for the local Buddhist community of Paddar to display their rich cultural heritage through traditional dresses, food, dance, and singing.

Jugal appeals to LG to provide relief to people for loss caused by ongoing monsoon

STATE TIMES NEWS
REASI: Jugal Kishore Sharma Provincial President DPAP (Jammu Region) has appealed to the LG Manoj Sinha to set up a committee in order to check the damage by the ongoing monsoons in the UT in accordance with the DC's of every district. The ongoing monsoon has brought a lot of damage to life and property of the common people, just like Dera Baba Panchayat in Reasi District witnessed cloud burst and still no one is looking into this from the administration. Many similar disasters have happened throughout the UT, which the administration is neglecting.

A lot of landslides are occurring in places which are already not well connected. Floods and severe landslides have occurred in Doda district and many other parts of the state also but the administration is not doing anything for the people. "I request and appeal the LG to look into this with his utmost concern and announce relief for the common people who have suffered loss due to the ongoing severe monsoons" he appealed.

The committee that is to be formed should look for damages in every district and provide immediate relief to the common people.
