In the holy month of

Sawan, Worship Lord Shiva is the most recommended activity one should observe to dispel malefic effects of planetary transits and other undesired elements from their lives.

It is to be noted that Sawan also marks the era when the goblet of Halahala venom was churned out of the Ksheer Sagar (Samudra Manthan) by the joint cooperation of Devas and Ashuras. When they rejected to share the poisonous Halahala, it was Lord Shiva who drank every drop of it and rescued the universe from unimaginable destructions.

The mighty power of the venom turned Shiva's neck into blue, thus naming Him Neelkanth since then.

Heart Choco Pops

Ingredients needed
1 kilograms cake flour
500 ml water
300 ml whipped cream
250 gm white chocolate
50 ml refined oil

2 drops vanilla essence
250 gm dark chocolate
100 gm colorful sprinkles

Method -

First heat the oven at 325°F, and grease round-shaped mould with butter paper.

Take the cake mixture in a bowl and add water, oil and mix them all together. Pour the mixture into the mould.

Now bake for nearly 30 - 35 minutes and check by inserting a toothpick. If no liquid sticks out, then the cake is ready. Then remove the pan from the oven and keep the cake aside for 10 minutes. Let it cool down completely.

Meanwhile, take melted white chocolate, dark chocolate and whipped cream. Mix them all together in a bowl. Mix for 5-6 minutes or till it becomes light and fluffy.

Using a knife remove the entire outer layer of the cake and crumble it into a large bowl. Try to get these crumbs to be as fine as possible.

Now roll the cake crumbs into balls and put wooden sticks in each, like a lollipop. Dip one pop in melted white chocolate and one pop in dark chocolate and cover each with heart-shaped sprinkles. Once done, your Heart Choco Pops are ready to be served.

White Chocolate Mousse

Ingredients needed

1 1/2 cup white chocolate
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla essence
1 cup heavy cream
1 gm whipped cream
2 tablespoon powdered sugar

For Garnishing

2 handfuls raspberry

Method

To begin with this easy recipe, take a pan over low heat and add milk. Once the milk starts heating, add in the white chocolate and keep stirring.

Turn the flame to medium and add heavy cream, sugar and keep whisking so that the mix doesn't stick to the bottom. Lastly, add vanilla essence and whipping cream, lower the flame and keep whisking the mixture for 3-4 minutes. Turn off the flame.

Transfer to a large bowl, using an electric beater give it a foamy texture. Next, take a serving bowl and line it with chopped raspberries, pour this mixture, flatten it using a spatula garnish with fresh raspberries and refrigerate for 3 hours.

Enjoy!
