

Jammu region remains always politically fertile ground for National Conference: Sadhotra

Jeevan Sharma SSP Retd joining NC in presence of Adtl Gen Secy NC Ajay Sadotra.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: A daylong conference of the functionaries of the National Conference (NC) Jammu Urban was held under the leadership of Chander Mohan Sharma, President JKNC Jammu Urban at Sher-e-Kashmir Bhawan.

Key attendees included Ajay Sadhotra, Additional General Secretary and former Minister; Rattan Lal Gupta, Provincial President Jammu, and Babu Rampal, former Minister and

Central Zone President. Chander Mohan Sharma highlighted several issues faced by the people of Jammu, such as inadequate healthcare facilities, water scarcity, erratic electricity supply, poor road conditions, and ration supply issues, attributing these challenges to the absence of an elected government. Ajay Sadhotra emphasized that the Jammu region has consistently been a fertile ground for the National Conference, citing strong support for leaders like Dr. Farooq Abdullah and Omar Abdullah. He underscored NC's historical role as a torchbearer for the region, advocating for its socio-economic development and cultural preservation. Rattan Lal Gupta expressed disappointment with the Union Budget, criticizing it for lacking new measures or relief for the public, including the people of Jammu and Kashmir. He highlighted the budget's failure to address economic challenges, support women and youth empowerment, or provide sufficient aid to poorer sections of society. Gupta also questioned the effectiveness of agricultural policies in doubling farmers' incomes. Rattan Lal Gupta reaffirmed NC's commitment to protecting job and land rights in Jammu and Kashmir, urging support for the party in the upcoming Assembly elections to ensure regional interests are safeguarded.

Provincial Secretaries Pardeep Bali and Ayub Malik urged party cadre to intensify efforts and prepare for a decisive victory in the upcoming elections.

The conference concluded with a call to action for NC members to strengthen their outreach and readiness for the forthcoming elections, highlighting the party's determination to address the region's challenges and secure a prosperous future for its citizens.

Meanwhile, Jeevan Sharma SSP Retd joined NC under the leadership of Additional General Secretary NC Ajay Sadotra.

Secretary, Information, Rehana Batul honouring a woman.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

ANANTNAG: Secretary, Information, Rehana Batul, on Tuesday convened a public outreach programme at Kular, Anantnag to provide a platform to the local residents to raise their issues and concerns for redressal.

The camp was attended by Additional Deputy Commissioner, Executive Engineers, Chief Medical Officer, Sub Divisional Magistrate, Assistant Commissioner and other concerned officers besides public.

During the event, the locals and various political representatives highlighted their grievances related to Health, Education, Irrigation, Water Supply and Forest Rights Act implementation.

The objective of holding these public outreach programmes and field visits by senior government functionaries is to make the governance machinery, especially at grass roots level, more responsive, effective and citizen centric.

The Secretary issued on the spot instructions to the concerned officers to ensure that the issues projected during the programme are resolved at the earliest. She also asked them to involve the local public representatives in formulation and implementation of development programmes so that need specific schemes are implemented.

Rehana Batul also had a detailed review of all ongoing development projects in the area. She asked the officers to ensure that these vital works are completed in time while maintaining the set quality parameters.

She said that these initiatives are aimed to facilitate the people with direct interaction with the government authorities for redressal of their grievances. She also emphasised upon the public to participate in all such grievance redressal camps for enhanced development of their areas.

Later, the Secretary also inspected the Primary Health Centre Sallar where she interacted with the medical staff and patients.

DB directives in PIL regarding Drug abuse in J&K

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: In a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) filed by law student Athary Mahajan and Court on its Own Motion regarding low conviction rate and acquittals in large number of NPDSA cases, Division Bench of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh High Court comprising Chief Justice (Acting) Tashi Rabstan and Justice Rajnesh Oswal directed the authorities shall file the status report with regard to the functioning of the de-addiction centres being run either by the Government or by the private individuals/NGOs in the Union Territories of J&K and Ladakh by the next date of hearing and further the respondents shall also inform this Court whether the vacancies have been filled in the Forensic Science Laboratories or not.

This significant order has been filed when the PIL came-up for hearing, DB observed that this Court vide order dated December 27, 2022, after taking note of the order dated March 4, 2022, directed the respondents to file a detailed action taken report/status report indicating the steps taken by them with regard to the qualitative and quantitative overhauling of the Forensic Science Laboratories in Union Territories of J&K and Ladakh and also steps required to be taken for de-addiction.

One status report was filed on February 27, 2023 by the Director, Forensic Science Laboratories J&K indicating the steps undertaken for qualitative and quantitative overhauling of the Forensic Science Laboratories. In the status report, it is stated that the process has been initiated for filling up the vacancies. Another status report dated July 15, 2023 was filed by the Special Director General of Police, Crime Branch, J&K indicating the action undertaken by the respondents for the purpose of checking menace of drugs, pursuant to the directions issued by this Court from time to time.

Adv Deepika Mahajan submits that the respondents have not filed any status report with regard to the steps taken for de-addiction till date and that de-addiction centres are not functioning properly, as such, the very purpose for which such centres have been established, is getting defeated.
