The residents raised several demands including infrastructure development, augmentation of water supply and healthcare facilities. Fresh survey of the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana, up-gradation of electric transformers, completion of PWD and PMGSY roads, opening of a Primary Health Center (PHC), release of pending payments under MGNREGA, renewal of gun licenses, sanction of pending old age and widow pensions, installation of solar lights, and improvement in educational facilities. Additionally, the locals also demanded widow pensions for Above Poverty Line (APL) individuals. DDC Mahajan said that Block Diwas aims at bringing governance to the doorstep of the people, providing people a platform to voice their concerns, seek redress of grievances and get firsthand information about various government schemes and initiatives. The residents informed DDC Mahajan about a tragic accident that claimed the lives of four family members, requesting assistance from the district administration. Responding to the same, the DDC assured them of help from the Red Cross Society. Officers from different departments also apprised the public about their departmental schemes. Addressing another concern, he asked the Block Development Officer Panthal to identify and propose land for women who cultivate vegetables to sell their produce, thus generating self-income. Earlier, the DDC interacted with the public, listened to their issues, and directed the concerned officials to address them promptly. He instructed the XEN PDD to survey and upgrade transformers where needed. Regarding the demand for a playground, the DDC stated that discussions would be held with the District Youth Services and Sports department to develop a playground in the area. He also inspected the 160 meter Panthal and Jhajjar Kotli bridge project and instructed the executing agency to start the pending construction work. He also inspected other developmental projects. Meanwhile, to promote agricultural mechanization and enhance productivity, District Development Commissioner Vishesh Mahajan issued tractors to farmers under a 50% subsidy scheme as a part of Holistic Agriculture Development Program (HADP). DDC Member Rajinder Mengi, SDM Katra Piyush Dhotra, SP Katra Vipin Chandran, ACD Pardeep Kumar, CEO Mushtaq Ahmed, XENs PDD and PHE, DSWO, Tensildar Katra, BDO Panthal and other officers were present.
