Three days National Conference on Ecological Engineering and Sustainable Livelihood organized

STATE TIMES NEWS

PATNITOP: Entomological Science Academy (ESA) in collaboration with SKUAST-Jammu organized three day National Conference on Ecological Engineering and Sustainable Livelihood at Alpine Meadows of Sanasar w.e.f. 5 to 7 July 2024.

ESA and SKUAST-J members posing with participants.

This was unique conference of its kind that discussed and deliberated on the pest problems threatening livelihood security of hill farmers in the Hill agriculture. Since the livelihood of hill farmers is being threatened by increasing pest problems leading to the dwindling of the bio resources such as anardana, wild honey, wild mushrooms and herbal commodities. Challenges, strategies and recommendations to secure their livelihood in sustainable manner was debated by a total of 62 delegates across the country viz., Arunachal Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh, IARI New Delhi, Rajasthan, Gujarat, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, J&K, M.P. and Jharkhand including members of scientific community and research scholars. Eight technical sessions were held in which eleven lead papers were presented by eminent agricultural scientists from ICAR and SKUAST-Jammu. Besides, more than 29 oral and 32 poster presentations were delivered by the delegates during the Conference. The Conference was organized under the able guidance of Prof. B. N. Tripathi, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, SKUAST-Jammu. In his message to the participants, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor complemented the participants and emphasized on open debate on the challenges and solutions of the conference through appropriate recommendations.

In his welcome address, Dr. R. K. Gupta, President ESA elaborated the themes of the conference under 8 heads viz., Hill farming and sustainable livelihood, Agrochemicals, IPM and IDM, Productive insects and Entrepreneurship for livelihood, Pollination crisis and Ecosystem services, Apitourism and Apitherapy, Bioinspiration from Insect for sustainable life, Insect Conservation and Apocalypse and Ecology and Climate Smart Agriculture before inauguration by Dr. Poonam Jasrotia, ADG, Plant Protection, ICAR through virtual mode. Speaking on above themes sheerically stressed that in the era of increasing pest population, ecological Engineering holds immense promise in revolutionising insect pest management while ensuring sustainable livelihood for communities dependent on agriculture. Besides, integrating principles of ecology with engineering solution can harmonise human activities with natural ecosystems thereby enhancing ecosystem services crucial for pest regulation. The conference culminated with successful recommendation of the each theme which will be forwarded to the policy makers for future planning. The best poster and oral presentation awards were also distributed among the participants. The valedictory function ended with the vote of thanks presented by organising secretary.

Work on Landslide hit Kishtwar-Paddar Road in full swing: DC

STATE TIMES NEWS

KISHTWAR: Few days back the Kishtwar to Paddar road was severely disrupted due to a massive landslide at Nagseni, halting vehicular movement and impacting essential supplies to the Paddar Sub Division.

The alternate road from the Himachal side remained open for essential supplies, but the same was disrupted due to the washing away of Singhrah Bridge-GREF in flash flood in the Sohla area. Deputy Commissioner Kishtwar, Dr. Devansh Yadav, today trekked to the landslide spot at Nagseni to reach the Paddar side, overseeing the repair of the Singhrah Bridge by GREF Authorities, which was completed within 3 hours in presence of SDM Paddar Amit Kumar, Tehsildar Atholi, DDC Paddar Arpan Singh Rana, and other officials. The road connectivity from Himachal to the Paddar area has now been restored and the Essential

Leprosy screening camp held at Sub Centre Labber

STATE TIMES NEWS

DODA: After a hotspot survey in the village of Sarak Marnat in Block Assar, the District Leprosy Society Doda organized a skin camp at AAM Sub Centre Labbar. During the camp, 15 patients with skin diseases were examined and provided treatment. Additionally, approximately 60 patients with other diseases were assessed by Dr. Javed Ahmed Parry, Medical Officer, and the LCU team, with five patients referred to GMC Doda. Self-care kits and MCR sandals were distributed to newly detected patients, and awareness about leprosy was provided to the general public. During the hotspot survey, the team visited 73 houses adjacent to the newly detected patient, screening 387 individuals. Out of these, five suspected cases were identified and referred to AAM Labbar, where they were examined by the team. The health team from the CMO Office Doda included Mr. Surinder Singh, Paramedical Supervisor; Mr. Ram Raj, Para Medical Assistant; and Farooq Ahmed, JHI. Additionally, the event also served as an opportunity to raise awareness about malaria.

A Solid Foundation for a Brighter Future: Mushtaq Ahmed Malik shares PMAY-G Success Story

STATE TIMES NEWS

RAMBAN : Mushtaq Ahmed Malik, a resident of Panchayat Danmasta, is beaming with pride as he showcases his newly constructed pucca house, built under the Pradhan Mantri Awaas Yojana-Gramin (PMAY-G) scheme. This sturdy abode is a testament to the government's commitment to providing affordable housing and employment opportunities to rural India.

Mushtaq's family, including his wife and two children, previously lived in a makeshift hut, vulnerable to harsh weather conditions. The fear of collapse was always looming, and the family's safety was a constant concern. However, their fortunes changed when Mushtaq's application for a PMAY-G house was approved. With the financial assistance from the government,

Mushtaq was able to construct a robust, pucca house, complete with all basic amenities. The house has become a symbol of hope and a better life for the family. "I am deeply grateful to the government for providing us with a solid roof over our heads," Mushtaq said, his eyes shining with gratitude. "Our new home is a dream come true, and we feel safe and secure. The additional 90-day job under MGNREGA has also helped me support my family during these challenging times." Mushtaq's story highlights the dual benefits of PMAY-G, which not only provides affordable housing but also generates employment opportunities through the MGNREGA scheme. The job card has enabled Mushtaq to work on various projects, earning a steady income and supporting his family's well-being.

Effective outreach by Sankalp HEW marks pioneering effort towards women empowerment

STATE TIMES NEWS

DODA: The Sankalp Hub for Empowerment of Women (HEW) Doda, under the guidance of District Social Welfare Officer, has been making significant strides towards safeguarding the women's rights and their empowerment through a series of impactful initiatives.

Over the past few weeks, the organization has intensified its efforts, focusing on key issues such as gender equality, legal awareness, and health rights for making the society more sensitive about gender based issues. In a noteworthy achievement, Sankalp HEW has successfully completed the third week of its ambitious 100-day event aimed at sensitizing Accredited Social Health Activists (ASHAs) about the Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques (PCPNDT) Act. This initiative is part of a larger campaign to eradicate sex-selective abortions and promote gender
