

SMVDIME, SMVDNSH restore vision through free cataract surgeries under AB-PMJAY

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: In a remarkable example of compassionate and inclusive healthcare, Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Institute of Medical Excellence (SMVDIME), in collaboration with Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Narayana Superspeciality Hospital (SMVDNSH), successfully conducted five free cataract surgeries under the Ayushman Bharat - Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana (AB-PMJAY) for patients from Village Halqa in Marh block, Jammu.

The beneficiaries were identified during a free multi-specialty health camp organized on July 19, in partnership with Mission Shakti - District Hub for Empowerment of Women (DHEW Jammu), the Social Welfare Department, and the J&K Rural Livelihood Mission (JKRLM). The surgeries were performed on July 24 by an expert ophthalmology team led by Dr. Malvika Sharma, Assistant Professor at SMVDIME and SMVDNSH. Patients were discharged the following day, July 25. What set this initiative apart was the holistic, patient-centered approach. From free transportation, accommodation, and nutritious meals for both patients and attendants to post-operative care including medicines and spectacles, every aspect of the journey was provided entirely free of cost.

"We are committed to reaching the unreachable. These surgeries are a reflection of our mission to make advanced medical care accessible regardless of income or geography," said Dr. Yashpal, Executive Director, SMVDIME. "This is not just about restoring vision-it's about restoring dignity, mobility, and hope," added Dr. M.M. Mathavan, Facility Director, SMVDNSH. The initiative was carried out under the guidance of the Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Shrine Board, whose support continues to strengthen healthcare infrastructure in the region.
