Sardarni Leela Kour, daughter of late Sardar Kartar Singh was born in 1930 in village Taroti Dharamsal, district Poonch. She had two brothers and one sister. Her father was a farmer having sufficient landed property in the village. In the absence of proper educational facilities in the villages during those days, she could not get any academic qualification. However she had learnt Punjabi from her parents. She got married to Sardar Dharam Singh, resident of village Khari Dharamsal district Poonch in 1945. Her husband was Havildar in the Indian Army. She was blessed with one daughter and five sons whom she provided good education. Her daughter who was a teacher and married in a good family, died in 2006. Her eldest son is a retired Headmaster, second son a transporter and third son a PDD employee both expired, fourth son is PEM and fifth one is also Headmaster. She was a very intelligent, soft spoken and a religious lady. She possessed the quality of being patient and even-minded both in pain and pleasure. Her family suffered the worst during partition when the Poonch town was cordoned by Pakistan forces with the help of tribesmen in 1947. They were without food and shelter till Brig Pritam Singh of Indian Army reached this town with his regiment and pushed the enemy back. She breathed her last on July 27, 2020 after a brief ailment. She is survived by her three sons and grand children. May God give eternal peace to the departed soul and courage to the family members to bear this irreparable loss.
