Nitish takes oath as Bihar CM for record eighth time, throws challenge at BJP on 2024 polls

STATE TIMES NEWS

PATNA: Nitish Kumar on Wednesday was sworn in as Bihar's chief minister a day after quitting ostensibly over a row with coalition partner BJP and will now govern in alliance with his former rivals in RJD and Congress.

His deputy and RJD's leader Tejashwi Yadav was the only other minister sworn in by Governor Phagu Chauhan, in a no-frills ceremony at Raj Bhawan here as lists of ministers to be nominated by parties in the coalition and their berths were yet to be finalised.

Kumar who heads the JD(U) took oath for a record eighth time, as head of the Mahagathbandhan' (grand alliance) which it had dumped in 2015, to join hands with the BJP.

The change effected by the wily leader, has in the eyes of many analysts potentially pitted him against Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

However, soon after the swearing in ceremony, Kumar while dismissing rumours that he may now eye the Prime Ministerial race in the next general election, asserted the Mod-led NDA government at the Centre does need to "worry" about its prospects in the 2024 Lok Sabha polls.

They should remember 2014 (when BJP stormed to power at the centre) is past. They need to worry (chinta karni chahiye) about 2024, Kumar said.

Leaders of the BJP, which is the second largest party in the assembly with 77 MLAs, were conspicuous by their absence at the swearing-in ceremony.
