

Tiranga our pride, our lifeline: Rana BK Singh's appointment as ADGP Forests approved

Senior BJP leader Devender Singh Rana leading a Tiranga Bike rally.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NAGROTA: Renewing his appeal of hoisting the Tricolour on every rooftop as part of Har Ghar Tiranga campaign, Senior BJP leader Devender Singh Rana on Friday said the drive across the country will reinvigorate the spirit of patriotism among the people, who are celebrating the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav.

"Tiranga is our pride, our lifeline", Devender Rana said while joining the enthusiastic rally, bubbling with the fervor of patriotism, in the Dansal area of Nagrota Assembly Constituency.

Rana said, duty has cast upon every Indian to contribute towards the nation in terms of strengthening unity and amity, working for environmental protection and social welfare, supporting its holistic development and supplementing the efforts of making the nation the world leader.

The die has been cast to make India as the Vishwaguru due to the visionary of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, he said, hoping that the people will be the willing partners in scripting this growth story.

The senior BJP leader lauded the fervor and enthusiasm among the people across Jammu and Kashmir in taking Tiranga to every home, saying this will indeed be a great tribute to innumerable freedom fighters, who enabled every Indian, irrespective of caste, creed, colour and religion to breathe in free environs by breaking the shackles from the Britishers. He said the indebted nation is grateful to those who gave their all, including lives for the freedom of India, and the posterity must know much about such supreme sacrifices.

'Hunter-350' launched at Reliance Motors

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Royal Enfield's 'Hunter-350' was formally launched at Reliance Motors, New Plots, Jammu during an impressive function. The bike was unveiled by ASM (Sales), Royal Enfield Jatinder Thakur, SP Vikram Singh and MD Reliance Motors Vikas Rathore besides a number of local people.

As per details, the prices of the bike start at Rs 1.50 lakh for base Retro variant, while the higher Metro variant is priced between Rs 1.64 lakh and 1.69 lakh depending on colour option, which makes it the most affordable of J-platform motorcycles, with its siblings Classic 350 and Meteor 350. 349 cc, single-cylinder engine gets new fuel ignition, colours, 17" wheel with dual channel, 'Hunter-350' is offered in two variants: Retro and Metro. 'Hunter-350' is 17 Kg lighter than Classic-350. The difference in weight between the Hunter's two variants is because there are a number of key differences between two bikes. The biggest visual differentiator is wire-spoke wheels on the Retro vs alloy units on Metro. Another big difference between the two variants is in braking department, where the Metro gets a 270mm rear disc brake and dual-channel ABS, while the Retro gets a lower spec, with a rear drum brake and single-channel ABS.
