

J&K's Kartik leads India U-18 Volleyball team for Asian C'ship

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Kartik Sharma of Baghni in district Jammu and Kashmir proud by becoming captain of the Indian under-18 team which left on Friday for the 14th Asian Men's U-18 Volleyball Championship at Tehran in Iran.

The 12-member team shall be playing in the event starting from August 15 to 22.

Earlier, Prof. (Dr) Achyuta Samanta, Member of Parliament, Kandhamal, President, Volleyball Federation of India & Founder, KIIT & KISS, Bhubaneswar, Odisha has provided support for the smooth conduct of the coaching camp and extended his good wishes to the team for 14th Asian Men's U-18

Indian Under-18 Volleyball team posing for a photograph with officials.

Volleyball Championship. Patron-in-Chief, Volleyball Association of Jammu and mission further, J&K BJP is also felicitating the prominent people and party veterans for their dedicated and selfless acts in the service of society and the Nation.

Kashmir, Raj Daluja, President, Sidharth Daluja, Chief Executive Officer

Kavinder Gupta said that the "Har Ghar Tiranga Abhiyan" which has been launched under the "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsava" has witnessed a massive response from the people. The BJP is also promoting common masses to participate more enthusiastically and in the series today felicitated veteran party activists and distributed Tiranga to them.

Priya Sethi said that it is the Prime Minister's vision to see the national flag on every house in J&K and for this the BJP workers are working day and night and are organizing various public programmes to create awareness for the same.

The campaign interacting with different stakeholders of society.

the campaign interacting with different stakeholders of society.

He told them that hoisting National Flag is not only a mean to celebrate India's 75th Independence Day but also a way to pay tributes to all the heroes of country who sacrificed their lives.

The teams also met with shopkeepers of the area and motivated them for healthy participation in the campaign of Har Ghar Tiranga besides distributing flags among pedestrians.

The traders whole heartedly welcomed the initiatives of police and assured that every single individual in society is already playing role in this campaign and Tricolour will be hoisted with pride at the top of every house.

On the other hand, bands of Jammu and Kashmir Police, Jammu and Kashmir Armed Police and CRPF held special shows at different locations of city and played patriotic songs.

The performance of bands mesmerized the audience who were enriched with patriotic values by artists in uniform.

SSP Jammu said that Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsava marks 75 years of India's independence and it becomes sole responsibility of every countrymen to celebrate this elite occasion and Har Ghar Tiranga is a campaign with this spirit.

He said that Jammu and Kashmir police in Jammu district is hoisting flags at a number of locations while thousands of flags have been distributed among people so that everyone can hoist the flag at their houses.

Singh said that the Bar Association is once again on the streets for a very genuine cause.

He further appealed every section of society, organisations and individuals to become a part of this campaign.

Jammu Bar resents dilly-dallying tactics of administration, continues agitation

Lawyers sitting on Dhrana at Jammu on Friday.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Shivani Charak of Mountaineering Association of J&K (MAJK) on Friday entered the final round in Lead Climbing competition in the ongoing 26th

State Times News

Kuldeep Magotra and others office bearers also extended their good wishes to the Indian squad for performing well and clinching the trophy for the country.

The Team: Kartik Sharma (Captain), Kush Singh, Turan Shekhar, Rana Aditya, Ashish Swain, Nayabhai Dhruvil Patel, Lavi Kumar, Yaman Khaitik (L), Atul Singh, Abhishek, Kabilan Mahendran and Aryan Balyan.

Officials: Jayakumar Nadarajan (Manager), Dr. Bir Singh Yadav (Head Coach), Dr. Shailesh Kumar (Assistant Coach) and Mahendra Singh Saharan (Referee).

Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav

SSP Jammu visits different areas, interacts with stakeholders for success of Har Ghar Tiranga campaign

SSP Jammu Chandan Kohli leading Tiranga rally at Jammu.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Special events on Har Ghar Tiranga under Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav were organised by Jammu police at different locations in Jammu City.

Different teams of police headed by concerned SHOs, ICPPs under the supervision of SDPO Gandhi Nagar Sachit Sharma, SDPO East Syed Zaheer Abbas Jafri, DySP DAR KD Singh and overall supervision of SP South Manita Sharma visited areas of Jammu including Auqaf Market, Gandhi Nagar, Apsara Road, Residency Road and installed National Flags at important locations.

SSP Jammu Chandan Kohli also accompanied these teams at different locations and led the campaign interacting with different stakeholders of society.

He told them that hoisting National Flag is not only a mean to celebrate India's 75th Independence Day but also a way to pay tributes to all the heroes of country who sacrificed their lives.

The teams also met with shopkeepers of the area and motivated them for healthy participation in the campaign of Har Ghar Tiranga besides distributing flags among pedestrians.

The traders whole heartedly welcomed the initiatives of police and assured that every single individual in society is already playing role in this campaign and Tricolour will be hoisted with pride at the top of every house.

On the other hand, bands of Jammu and Kashmir Police, Jammu and Kashmir Armed Police and CRPF held special shows at different locations of city and played patriotic songs.

The performance of bands mesmerized the audience who were enriched with patriotic values by artists in uniform.

SSP Jammu said that Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsava marks 75 years of India's independence and it becomes sole responsibility of every countrymen to celebrate this elite occasion and Har Ghar Tiranga is a campaign with this spirit.

He said that Jammu and Kashmir police in Jammu district is hoisting flags at a number of locations while thousands of flags have been distributed among people so that everyone can hoist the flag at their houses.

Singh said that the Bar Association is once again on the streets for a very genuine cause.

He further appealed every section of society, organisations and individuals to become a part of this campaign.

JKNPP extends support to J&K High Court Bar Association citizens right to get effective justice by locating the judicial institutions at different and distant places.

Singh said that if the judicial institutions are located at far off and different places, the general public shall have to suffer. He said the advocates shall also have to suffer if the judicial institutions are not located at one place which in turn would increase the sufferings of the general public.

Singh said that the J & K National Panthers Party has always stood up for the cause of the Public and has fought for the rights of citizens at every forum. Singh assured all out support to J&K High Court Bar Association in its fight for justice.

Singh appealed to the government to address the demands of Bar Association at the earliest so that the general public does not have to suffer.

He said that the government boasts of providing justice at the door steps of the citizens but the fact of the matter is that it is virtually denying the

Before The Common High Court Of Union Territories of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh at Srinagar

Caveat No...../2022

In the matter of:

Jammu and Kashmir Bank Limited
Through its Managing Director & CEO,
Corporate Headquarters, M.A. Road, Srinagar.

...Caveator

Versus

Public At Large

...Non-Caveators

In the matter of:

CAVEAT APPLICATION

May it please your Lordships,
The applicant mostly humbly submits as under:-

1. That the caveator Bank has vide its Order bearing Reference JKB/HRD/Rectt/2022-1307 Dated August, 10 2022 of HR- Department, initiated promotion process of its employees for Sr. Manager to Chief Manager cadre which shall commence from 13th of August 2022. Copy of said Order is placed alongside as ANNEXURE-I to this caveat application.

2. That the caveator Bank has reasonable belief that any person/employee/s of the Caveator may approach this Hon'ble Court and challenge the said Order Dated August, 10 2022 by filing writ or any other proceeding against thereto. Therefore, in the eventuality of any such proceedings being preferred by the non-caveators against the caveator Bank, the caveator Bank through its Senior Counsel M/S Zaffar Law Associates, may kindly be given an opportunity of being heard for projecting the case of the caveator Bank. The caveat application has been published in two local dailies of the UT of J&K. Copies of newspaper cuttings are annexed herewith.

In the premises, it is therefore prayed that this caveat application may be accepted and in the eventuality of writ or any other proceeding being preferred by the non-caveators challenging the said Order Dated August, 10 2022, the caveator Bank may kindly be given an opportunity of being heard through its Senior Counsel M/S Zaffar Law Associates before passing any order in the case.

Place : Srinagar
Dated: 12.08.2022

DIP/J-2332-P/22

Caveator Bank Through Counsel
M/S Zaffar Law Associates

BJP felicitates veteran party activists

J&K senior leaders felicitating veteran activists of the party.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), Jammu & Kashmir led by its senior leaders felicitated the veteran activists of the party at party headquarter, Trikuta Nagar, Jammu.

J&K BJP General Secretary (Org) Ashok Koul, former Dy. CM Kavinder Gupta, BJP NEM Priya Sethi, Chief spokesperson Sunil Sethi and other senior party leaders felicitated veteran party activists and distributed Tiranga on the occasion. Ashok Koul felicitated the veteran party activists and spoke on their important role in strengthening the organization. He said that the whole Nation is celebrating the "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsava" on the call of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. He said that the PM, in this year, stressed on the need to remember every unsung hero of the "Azadi" who was omitted from the pages of history for better-known reasons. Taking the campaign interacting with different stakeholders of society.

He told them that hoisting National Flag is not only a mean to celebrate India's 75th Independence Day but also a way to pay tributes to all the heroes of country who sacrificed their lives.

The teams also met with shopkeepers of the area and motivated them for healthy participation in the campaign of Har Ghar Tiranga besides distributing flags among pedestrians.

The traders whole heartedly welcomed the initiatives of police and assured that every single individual in society is already playing role in this campaign and Tricolour will be hoisted with pride at the top of every house.

On the other hand, bands of Jammu and Kashmir Police, Jammu and Kashmir Armed Police and CRPF held special shows at different locations of city and played patriotic songs.

The performance of bands mesmerized the audience who were enriched with patriotic values by artists in uniform.

SSP Jammu said that Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsava marks 75 years of India's independence and it becomes sole responsibility of every countrymen to celebrate this elite occasion and Har Ghar Tiranga is a campaign with this spirit.

He said that Jammu and Kashmir police in Jammu district is hoisting flags at a number of locations while thousands of flags have been distributed among people so that everyone can hoist the flag at their houses.

Singh said that the Bar Association is once again on the streets for a very genuine cause.

He further appealed every section of society, organisations and individuals to become a part of this campaign.

He told them that hoisting National Flag is not only a mean to celebrate India's 75th Independence Day but also a way to pay tributes to all the heroes of country who sacrificed their lives.

The teams also met with shopkeepers of the area and motivated them for healthy participation in the campaign of Har Ghar Tiranga besides distributing flags among pedestrians.

The traders whole heartedly welcomed the initiatives of police and assured that every single individual in society is already playing role in this campaign and Tricolour will be hoisted with pride at the top of every house.

On the other hand, bands of Jammu and Kashmir Police, Jammu and Kashmir Armed Police and CRPF held special shows at different locations of city and played patriotic songs.

The performance of bands mesmerized the audience who were enriched with patriotic values by artists in uniform.

SSP Jammu said that Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsava marks 75 years of India's independence and it becomes sole responsibility of every countrymen to celebrate this elite occasion and Har Ghar Tiranga is a campaign with this spirit.

He said that Jammu and Kashmir police in Jammu district is hoisting flags at a number of locations while thousands of flags have been distributed among people so that everyone can hoist the flag at their houses.

Singh said that the Bar Association is once again on the streets for a very genuine cause.

He further appealed every section of society, organisations and individuals to become a part of this campaign.

He told them that hoisting National Flag is not only a mean to celebrate India's 75th Independence Day but also a way to pay tributes to all the heroes of country who sacrificed their lives.

The teams also met with shopkeepers of the area and motivated them for healthy participation in the campaign of Har Ghar Tiranga besides distributing flags among pedestrians.

The traders whole heartedly welcomed the initiatives of police and assured that every single individual in society is already playing role in this campaign and Tricolour will be hoisted with pride at the top of every house.

On the other hand, bands of Jammu and Kashmir Police, Jammu and Kashmir Armed Police and CRPF held special shows at different locations of city and played patriotic songs.

The performance of bands mesmerized the audience who were enriched with patriotic values by artists in uniform.

SSP Jammu said that Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsava marks 75 years of India's independence and it becomes sole responsibility of every countrymen to celebrate this elite occasion and Har Ghar Tiranga is a campaign with this spirit.

He said that Jammu and Kashmir police in Jammu district is hoisting flags at a number of locations while thousands of flags have been distributed among people so that everyone can hoist the flag at their houses.

Singh said that the Bar Association is once again on the streets for a very genuine cause.

He further appealed every section of society, organisations and individuals to become a part of this campaign.

He told them that hoisting National Flag is not only a mean to celebrate India's 75th Independence Day but also a way to pay tributes to all the heroes of country who sacrificed their lives.

The teams also met with shopkeepers of the area and motivated them for healthy participation in the campaign of Har Ghar Tiranga besides distributing flags among pedestrians.

The traders whole heartedly welcomed the initiatives of police and assured that every single individual in society is already playing role in this campaign and Tricolour will be hoisted with pride at the top of every house.

On the other hand, bands of Jammu and Kashmir Police, Jammu and Kashmir Armed Police and CRPF held special shows at different locations of city and played patriotic songs.

The performance of bands mesmerized the audience who were enriched with patriotic values by artists in uniform.

SSP Jammu said that Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsava marks 75 years of India's independence and it becomes sole responsibility of every countrymen to celebrate this elite occasion and Har Ghar Tiranga is a campaign with this spirit.

He said that Jammu and Kashmir police in Jammu district is hoisting flags at a number of