

Resolve issues of agitating daily-wagers, lawyers: JKPCC

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Criticising the UT administration for its failure to resolve genuine issues of agitating daily wagers of PHE besides the lawyers in Jammu, Congress on Tuesday asked the government to take positive steps to resolve the issues.

Taking strong exception to the indifferent attitude of the government towards the most genuine issues of daily wagers of Jal Shakti Department besides all such workers in different departments, JKPCC Senior Leader and former MLC, Ravinder Sharma described it total failure of the government to respond to the genuine issues of agitating sections. He questioned the approach of the authorities to the poor workers who are suffering a lot as they find it impossible to survive and feed their families on meagre and irregular wages. They are waiting for justice for long time and agitating for their rights of regularisation, he said adding that the general public too is suffering due to lack of regular water supply due to ongoing agitation of Jal Shakti Department workers. Referring to the lawyers stir, Ravinder said that all their demands are genuine and in the larger interest of general public.

The government must immediately concede their genuine demands without further delay.

President MC Rajouri, Councilors launch tiling work at City Bus Stand

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

RAJOURI: President Municipal Council Rajouri, Mohammad Arif on Tuesday launched tile work at the old bus terminal. The work is set to be completed at an anticipated cost of Rs 55 lakh.

The tiling work has been initiated to meet the long-standing demand of the general public. Interacting with the shopkeepers and local residents, Mohammad Arif stated that the tiling work of the city bus stand would keep the surroundings clean. "The work has been started to meet the long-standing public demand and provide much needed respite to the general public, transport workers, and travelers" he said. He further said that this work is part of the city and town programme, which also includes filling of potholes from Abdullah Bridge to Baba Banda Singh Bahadur Bridge Rajouri.

Arif instructed the executing agency to complete the work within the set deadline and adhere to quality parameters.

Former MC President and Councillor, Rajinder Gupta, Councillor, Sanjay Kumar Sharma, Councillor, Mamta Dutt, concerned Engineers besides prominent citizens were present on the occasion.
