SHRADHANJALI

Prof Bhagat Singh, son of Late Sardar Lal Singh was born in 1936 at district Muzaffrabad (Now in PoJK). Later, during partition of 1947, his family migrated from its homeland and got settled in Jammu. He had four brothers and one sister.

After completing MA, Prof Bhagat Singh started working as a lecturer in B.Ed College, Jammu and thereafter joined MAM College, Jammu. He got married to Sardarni Paramjeet Kour and was blessed with four sons to whom he provided good education, but unfortunately one of his sons expired in early age. Presently, all his sons are married in good families and well-settled. He was an intelligent, honest and dedicated academician, who retired from service in 1994 as a Professor.

A staunch devotee of Guru Granth Sahib, Prof Bhagat Singh was a polite, social and helpful person, always ready to help poor and needy people. He breathed his last on August 15, 2022 after a brief ailment. He is survived by wife, sons, daughters-in-law and grand-children.
