

India win Silver in U-20 Asian Volleyball Championship

Captain Dushyant Singh Jakhar receiving "Best Blocker of Asia Award" and jubilant Indian Volleyball team after winning Silver medal in Asian Men's U20 Volleyball Championship.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: After a gap of 20 years, Indian team led by Captain Dushyant Singh Jakhar finished its campaign at the Asian Men's U20 Volleyball Championship with a silver medal after losing 1-3 against Iran in the final in Riffa, Bahrain.

The Indian team put on a great fight, but couldn't compare to the Iranian side as the latter triumphed over the former 12-25, 19-25, 25-22, 25-25.

India beat Thailand in the semifinals with a score of 3-1 (25-21, 23-25, 25-18, 25-17) to reach the final.

This was the second instance the two teams faced each other. India and Iran met during the pool stage where Iran piped India 3-0 (25-20, 25-10, 25-19).

India had previously won two silver, having lost once to South Korea and Iran in 1994 and 2002 respectively.

India secured second position in the Championship among 17 Asian countries after a gap of 20 years.

Throughout the event, Captain of the Indian Team, Dushyant Singh Jakhar played an outstanding game supported by Aman Kumar, Tanish, Sameer Chaudhary, Ajeet Shekha, Harshit Giri, Sachin Dagar and libero Kartikeyan to achieve this exceptional feat.

Indian Captain Dushyant Singh Jakhar was also awarded with "Best Blocker of Asia Award" and Karthikeyan awarded with 'Best Libero of Asia Award' by the Asian Volleyball Confederation.

Korea clinched the bronze medal after thumping Thailand in straight sets (31-29, 25-16, 25-14). Thailand, bronze medallists in 2018, finished fourth.

With this performance, Indian U-20 volleyball team has qualified to play FIVB Volleyball Men's U21 World Championship 2023.
