Motivational camp organised at GCW Udhampur to encourage youth to Join Indian Armed Forces

STATE TIMES NEWS

UDHAMPUR: The 2nd JK NCC Battalion of College, in collaboration with HQ NC Udhampur, organized a motivational camp at Govt. College for Women (GCW) Udhampur. The camp aimed to uplift the youth and inspire them to join the Indian Army, Navy, and Air Force. The camp was conducted under the G20 and AzaadiKaMahotsav initiatives. Lieutenant (Dr) Kamal Deep Kaur shared that the camp was specifically designed to raise awareness about the career opportunities in the Indian Armed Forces among the eligible and enthusiastic local youth. Lieutenant Colonel NutanChhillar, the resource person, emphasized the importance of employment and encouraged the aspiring youth to prepare and participate in the recruitment processes conducted by the Recruitment Agencies of Defence Services. This would enable them to pursue a noble and fulfilling career. The participants were also provided information about the physical and educational requirements, as well as the selection process for various entry options into the services. Professor Anjali Mahajan, the Principal of GCW Udhampur, commended the efforts of the organizers in introducing the cadets to such informative events. The camp was attended by Professor Mool Raj, Professor Tania Akhter, the Head of Department, and ANO NCC, Dr.Meena Gupta.

The motivational camp organized at GCW Udhampur aimed to inspire and guide the youth towards a rewarding career in the Indian Armed Forces, contributing to their personal growth and the development of our nation's defence forces.
