Administration committed to creating business, investment, economic climate in J&K: LG

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
GANDERBAL: Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha on Monday said the administration is fully committed to create business, investment and economic climate in Jammu and Kashmir.

"State-of-the-art highways, rural roads and village-level women-led industries have registered a marked rise over the last few years," the Lt Governor said while dedicating the 'Golden Glory Eco Park' to the people during his visit to Sonamarg.

He also attended 'Meri Maati Mera Desh' programme and paid tributes to the freedom fighters and martyrs who sacrificed their lives for the motherland.

The Lt Governor recalled the contribution of the prominent personalities of Jammu Kashmir in building a progressive and prosperous society.

'Meri Maati Mera Desh' is also a grand occasion for the society to pay tribute to
