Vidushi Mahajan, a research scholar from Gurunanak Dev University Amritsar, an alumni of JK Public School (JKPS) Panjtirthi visiting school for research work.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Vidushi Mahajan, a research scholar from Gurunanak Dev University Amritsar, an alumni of JK Public School (JKPS) Panjtirthi, on Tuesday visited JKPS to conduct a research work on social aspects of Psychology.

The Principal and the staff members warmly welcomed her.

Vidushi said, "A true understanding of the causes of social behavior can only be obtained through a systematic scientific approach. The study of social behavior should be empirical-that is, based on the collection and systematic analysis of observable data."

Vidushi interacted with the students of class 9th and 10th and collected the required data.

The Jakiians seemed very inspired and motivated to see the jakiiian.

The Principal of JKPS Panjtirthi Suman Banbah and staff members felt very proud to see Vidushi as a research scholar.

Vidushi remarked, "Jakiians must take all the advantages and privileges which JKPS is providing them, because once these days are gone will never come back. Sometimes I recollect my old memories and I feel so happy and relaxed that I enjoyed my school days and have taken most of the privileges like participation in Annual functions/prize distribution programmes, celebration of national and international days, Saturday literary activities, Mass quizzes, second Saturday's educational visits, picnics etc etc."

She further added, "I must say JKPS Panjtirthi is a School with the difference. Its a school that is "A Home away from Home" where one can have fun while learning. I express my thanks to all the faculty members who have put their sincere efforts to build my career and special thanks and regards to the Principal for my overall development."
