MESSAGE

On the occasion of National Senior Citizens Day, observed every year on 21st August, I extend my heartfelt greetings to all the senior citizens. This day holds special significance as we come together to honour the invaluable contributions that senior citizens have made to the society, profoundly influencing our lives in positive ways.

Our senior citizens are the living repositories of our history and culture, holding within them a treasure of experiences and values that have shaped our nation's journey. Their hard work, dedication, and sacrifices have paved the way for the progress and development we enjoy today. Their unwavering determination continues to inspire and guide us in our endeavors. We must remain committed to ensure that they enjoy a healthy and dignified life.

The government has implemented various initiatives to provide them with access to quality healthcare, social & legal support and encourage active aging. We recognize that their wisdom is an invaluable resource, and we are dedicated to creating an inclusive society where they can thrive and contribute meaningfully.

Let us be appreciative of our elders and uphold their rights and dignity. It is our collective duty to accord due respect and care to these esteemed members of our community.

Srinagar (Manoj Sinha)

Dr. Arun Kumar Mehta (IAS) CHIEF SECRETARY JAMMU & KASHMIR

MESSAGE

On this significant day of 21st August, as we observe National Senior Citizens Day, I extend my best wishes to all the Senior Citizens. This day serves as a meaningful opportunity to admire and celebrate their remarkable achievements and useful contributions to our society.

The wisdom and experience of our senior citizens serves as a source of inspiration for our younger generations. Their support and guidance have played an important role in shaping our destinies. Just as they supported us in times of need, it's our responsibility to reciprocate the care. By doing so, we create an environment where they can lead happy and fulfilling lives while knowing they are valued and cherished members of our society.

The government has initiated numerous schemes aimed at enhancing the quality of life of our senior citizens. Senior Citizen Homes have been established in 13 districts and Helpline for Senior Citizens is also available. Besides, Rules under Maintenance & Welfare of Parents & Senior Citizens' Act have been issued and Maintenance & Appellate Tribunals for Senior Citizens constituted in all districts. I urge the senior citizens to be aware of their legal rights and take benefit of welfare programs.

On this day, let's commit to express our gratitude towards senior citizens enriching their lives with care and happiness.

Srinagar (Dr. Arun Kumar Mehta)

Sheetal Nanda (IAS) Commissioner/Secretary Social Welfare Department, J&K

MESSAGE

On the occasion of National Senior Citizens day on 21st August 2023, I extend my greetings and gratitude to all the senior citizens. The day is celebrated to commemorate their accomplishments and contributions to the society.

Senior citizens are source of inspiration to the youth of our country and have given unparalleled support in shaping the lives of our future generations. They are the treasure of moral values and we must value their sacrifices and learn from their enriched experiences.

The steady increase in population of senior citizens also brings to the fore many challenges being faced by them in their day to day life. The Government is committed to provide quality life to the senior citizens and in its endeavor to do so have introduced various welfare schemes and legal safeguards for them. It is our responsibility to provide them all the support they need for access to Medical, Legal and other social issues being faced by them.

Let us all resolve to give them support and care for leading healthy, happy and dignified life.
