

Congress supports Sarore, Railway Station agitation

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Congress has supported the Sarore agitation for abolishing the toll plaza launched by Yuva Rajput Sabha and demanded immediate removing the same besides seeking white paper over the time period of other toll plazas in Jammu. JKPC also supported the agitation by the taxi, auto operators over the parking issue allotted to some contractor first time, after 1972. Extending full support to the agitation launched by people under aegis of YRS, JKPC has said that this demand was being raised by the different organizations especially transporters, who had held strong agitation also in the past but the government remained adamant. The Sarore toll plaza is in total violation of the norms of distance besides ors but the Jammuites including Vaishno Devi pilgrims are being taxed. Demanding immediate disbanding of toll plaza at Sarore, JKPC Chief Spokesperson, Ravinder Sharma demanded a white paper on the life of other toll plazas in Jammu in view of revelations about toll plazas collection by the CAG. He said Modi government sold 151 trains besides over 400 railway stations are planned to be sold by Modi government. This government is on privatization spree as a result the railway parking and everything is being privatized to earn money which the end consumer will suffer.
