

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR DEAREST PAPA ON 23RD DEATH ANNIVERSARY

We are missing you a little more each time we hear your name, we have cried so many tears yet our heart's broken just the same. We miss our times together, things in common we could share, But nothing fills the emptiness because now you are no longer here. We have so many precious memories to last our whole life through, Each one of them reminders of how much we are missing you.

G20 University Connect Program held at SKUAST-J

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: SKUAST Jammu on Tuesday organised G-20 Lecture series for engaging Young minds. The agenda for lecture series was on G-20 India's Presidency, Agriculture issues in G-20 and sustainable agriculture for resilient Agri Food System with Climate Smart Approach, Prize distribution of Pre event activities.

Tripathi expressed pride in the university's pioneering role in hosting this significant event. He underscored the need for sustainable agriculture and tapped into the region's potential as a top producer of walnuts, apples, and saffron. His speech resonated with the audience, emphasizing the importance of a collaborative approach.

Sanjay Bhattacharya, the former Secretary of the Ministry of External Affairs, India, gave a special lecture on G20 Indian presidency. Mr. Bhattacharya delved into the transformative era India is undergoing, positioning the country as a key player in the global economy. He provided intricate details about the G20's evolution from addressing economic crises to shaping a multitude of global initiatives. Bhattacharya's insights underscored the significance of G20, which represents 2/3rd of the world's population, 85% of the GDP, and 75% of trade. He emphasized the G20's pillars, including energy transition, digital transformation, climate funds, and accelerating Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Dr. B N Tripathi, Vice-Chancellor of SKUAST Jammu and Chairman of G 20 University Connect Programme at SKUAST Jammu, concluded the series of eminent speakers by reflecting on the occasion. Dr.

Farmers Welfare, Government of India, contributed to the discourse by discussing the moral obligations that accompany G20 commitments. She highlighted India's vital food programs like the POSHAN scheme and advocated for fortification, reducing food losses, and a comprehensive "one health" approach.

Dr. RC Agarwal, Deputy Director General (Education) ICAR, in his address, lauded the significance of youth in shaping the future and acknowledged the increasing engagement of girls in the agricultural sector.

Prof. Rajinder Peshin, the coordinator of the G20 programme, welcome and presented a report on Pre event student activities during the G 20 University connect Programme by SKUAST Jammu. An awards function recognized student achievements in various pre-event activities, including poster-making, essay writing, quiz, ideation, and rangoli competitions. The winners showcased their creativity and dedication across these diverse categories. In the poster-making competition, Yashvi Sharma, a student from the Faculty of Agriculture, SKUAST-Jammu secured the first position; while in the essay writing competition Gurner Kaur a student from GDC RS Pura claimed the top spot. GDC for Women Bhagwaninagar emerged as the quiz champion, and in the Ideathon, a veterinary student from SKUAST Jammu secured the first prize. Faculty of Agriculture, SKUAST-Jammu triumphed in the rangoli competition.

Following the lectures, Dr. Rohit Saini Fellow Research and Information System for developing countries, initiated a dynamic question-and-answer session, providing students an opportunity to interact directly with the esteemed guests and deepen their understanding of the discussed topics.

The event drew to a close with a heartfelt vote of thanks, extended by Dr. S K Gupta, Registrar, SKUAST-Jammu expressing gratitude to all participants, dignitaries, and contributors who made the event a resounding success. The closing note was marked by a spirited rendition of the national anthem, symbolizing unity and shared aspirations.

DC Jammu calls for speedy land transfer for vital projects

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Deputy Commissioner Sachin Kumar Vaishya on Tuesday reviewed the progress on land acquisition for various developmental projects in the district here at a meeting of stakeholder departments. The projects include the Delhi-Amritsar-Katra Expressway, Jammu Ring Road, Jammu-Akhnoor and Jammu-Poonch roads, Expansion of Jammu Airport and other projects of importance to the defence viz Border Outposts and Border Fencing. The meeting was attended by Additional Deputy Commissioner, Harvinder Singh; Assistant Commissioner Revenue, Piyush Dhotra, as well as all Sub Divisional Magistrates, Tehsildar Headquarter and other senior officials.

The DC set deadlines for removing bottlenecks and resolving long-pending and contentious issues related to these projects. He also directed the respective officers to ensure timely distribution of compensation amounts among the rightful owners. Additionally, the officers were instructed to stay vigilant against corrupt practices and take a strict stance against such practices in their subordinate offices.

The meeting also addressed delineations/demarcations of land that are not part of any water course/source but have been recorded as Gair Mumkin Khad, Gair Mumkin Darya, Gair Mumkin Nallah, etc., in revenue records.

MVUs launched to provide Vet services at farmers' doorsteps

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Director Animal Husbandry Department Jammu Dr. Shubhra Sharma on Tuesday inaugurated Mobile Veterinary Units (MVUs) in an impressive function organized here at the Directorate of Animal Husbandry, Talab Tillo Jammu.

and will operate in districts of Jammu, Udhampur, Kathua, Doda and Rajouri to cater to the needs of farmers and livestock owners by providing veterinary health care to their animals at their doorsteps and shall especially benefit those areas which lack veterinary facilities or face shortage of manpower. She further said that these units have been fabricated with state of art veterinary healthcare facilities for providing accurate diagnosis and quality treatment on the spot to the ailing livestock. "Mobile Veterinary Units shall also provide artificial insemination services including sex-sorted semen technology for breed improvement in local cattle in addition to veterinary healthcare in the region of their operations", she added.

Elaborating upon the mode of operation of the MVUs she explained that these units shall be operated through call centres over helpline no. '1962' and farmers in case of any emergency will make calls to these call centres and treatment shall be provided by a team of a Veterinary Doctor and a Para-vet manning these MVUs operating nearest to the needy farmer.
