

78th Independence Day celebrated across Jammu

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU/ SRINAGAR: On the 78th Independence Day, Dr. Manmohan Vaidya, RSS All India Executive Member and former Joint General Secretary, unfurled the National Flag in Srinagar. Currently visiting Kashmir, Dr. Vaidya's address centered on Indian culture, likening it to the Ganges River for its essence of charity and acceptance. He spoke of "spiritual democracy" as fundamental to Indian philosophy, contrasting it with Western ideals. Dr. Vaidya highlighted India's national identity as deeply rooted in its spiritual perspective, viewing nationhood through a qualitative rather than purely political lens. He distributed sweets to security personnel and extended his Independence Day wishes to them. The event was attended by Mustafa Ali, National Secretary of Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad (ABVP), Arif Shafi, ABVP Srinagar President, and Anjum Saqib, ABVP Srinagar Secretary.

The State Council of Educational Research and Training (SCERT) J&K celebrated the 78th Independence Day with enthusiasm at its Divisional Office in Jammu. Prof. (Dr.) Parikshat Singh Manhas, Director, SCERT

J&K, and H.R. Pakhroo, Joint Director, Central move office were present on the occasion. The event began with Prof. (Dr.) Sindhu Kapoor, Joint Director of the Jammu Division, hoisting the National Flag. Prof. Kapoor honored the sacrifices of national heroes and urged educators to uphold the values of freedom, unity, and innovation. The celebrations featured captivating performances by SCERT faculty members, including Shamim Nazki, Abha Verma, and Manisha Chun, who infused their acts with patriotism and nationalism. The event concluded with a powerful message emphasizing unity, compassion, and innovation-principles crucial in today's world.

The Central Government Pensioners' Welfare Association (CGPWA) in Jammu celebrated Independence Day with enthusiasm at the Day Care Centre at Exhibition Ground. The event was graced by former DGP Dr. Ashok Bhan and fifty former senior civil servants who gathered to hoist the Tricolor. The grand finale featured a chorus led by Dr. Bhan, singing Lata Mangeskar's evergreen "Aye Mere Watan Ke Logon." The poignant performance paid tribute to those who sacrificed their lives in service of the nation. The celebration captured the spirit of gratitude and remembrance. The Gandhi Nagar Greenbelt Morning Walkers Association also celebrated the 78th Independence Day with vigor despite the rain. Senior members Er. Lalit Mengi and Er. JBS Johar, both former Chief Engineers, hoisted the National Flag. Around 250 morning walkers, yoga practitioners, and their families participated in the event. Noted Urologist Dr. C.L. Gupta spoke on the significance of Independence Day and the need to safeguard this freedom. The celebration included patriotic songs performed by children, highlighting the day's joyous and reflective spirit.

The Govt Higher Secondary School (HSS) Chowki Jandrore, along with GMS Birnoo, GMS Chowki, GMS Majua, GPS Dulad, and private schools including Indira Public and Vishavkarma Academy, celebrated Independence Day with great enthusiasm. Principal B.K. Pathak, the chief guest, hoisted the Tricolor at 8:55 am, saluted the flag, and inspected the parade.

Awards were given to the top performers in cultural activities and BOSE results. Two exemplary teachers, Rajesh Kumar (Lecturer in Zoology) and Nisha Sharma, were honored for their dedicated teaching methods based on student feedback.
