comes months after the Supreme Court upheld the Centre's decision to scrap Jammu and Kashmir's special status and directed that Assembly elections be held by September. In Jammu and Kashmir, the total electorate stands at approximately 87.09 lakh, according to the draft roll published on July 25, 2024.

The gender distribution includes around 44.46 lakh male voters and 42.62 lakh female voters.

The draft roll also underscores the presence of a substantial young voter base, with around 3.71 lakh first-time voters aged 18-19 years and 20.7 lakh voters aged 20-29 years. Additionally, the region records 82,590 persons with disabilities (PwDs), 2,660 centenarians, 73,943 voters aged 85 years and above, and 169 third-gender voters.

The CEC said the ease of voting for Kashmiri migrants introduced during the recent Lok Sabha polls will be in place for the Jammu and Kashmir Assembly polls as well.

He also lauded the democratic spirit of the people of Jammu and Kashmir:

Nalin Prabhat posted...

to Jammu and Kashmir with "immediate effect" and upon retirement of Swain on September 30, "Prabhat is appointed as DGP, Jammu and Kashmir".

Prabhat has a distinguished career marked by multiple accolades, including three Police Gallantry Medals and the Parakram Padak.

At 55 years old, Prabhat has an extensive background in counter-insurgency operations, having previously led the Greyhounds, a highly specialised anti-Naxal unit, in Andhra Pradesh.

AC confers ownership...

provided by Cabinet Order No. 578-C of 1954 and the ceiling under the Jammu and Kashmir Agrarian Reforms Act, 1976.

The decision fulfills demands of all connected families, which have been requesting for ownership rights since past so many decades. The Government has always remained committed to provide benefits to the Displaced Persons.

By another decision, with a view to strengthen administrative set-up, the Administrative Council approved cadre review of the Jammu and Kashmir Administrative Services.

The review shall revise the strength and composition of the services in view of increased complexities and scale of operations as well as changes in work profiles due to new schemes and initiatives after specific recommendations from the Administrative Departments.

The revised strength shall accommodate eighty seven new posts, with deletion of fifty posts coupled with creation of forty six posts. The decision shall also up-grade twenty nine posts to ensure adequate administrative experience and efficiency in disposal of government business. The review shall also enable career progression as well as employment avenues for the youth by releasing vacancies for direct recruitment through concerned recruiting agencies.

The Administrative Council further issued directions that the re-structuring of Jammu and Kashmir Police Service cadre may also be fast tracked by the Home Department.

The Administrative Council also approved creation of posts of different ranks (from Deputy Director Prosecution to class IV), totaling 83 posts, in Prosecution Department to comply with relevant provisions of Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS).

Rajeev Rai Bhatnagar, Advisor to Lieutenant Governor; Atal Dulloo, Chief Secretary, Dr. Mandeep K Bhandari, Principal Secretary to Lieutenant Governor participated in the meeting.

As per existing arrangement, there are only twelve posts of Deputy Directors to cater twenty Districts. In order to have an independent Deputy Director for each District, eight more posts of Deputy Directors along with supporting staff are required to facilitate creation of District Directorates in each District, as prescribed in terms of Section 20 of Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS). This would improve handling of matters related to Prosecution in various courts as per revised framework as per different provisions of BNSS to strengthen the Criminal Justice System, for ensuring timely delivery of justice.

Administrative Council also approved creation of (772) posts of different categories for Government Railway Police (GRP) J&K to strengthen the railway security apparatus between Katra-Banihal segment. The recommendations for creation of (772) posts for Katra-Banihal segment has also been made by Multi-Disciplinary Committee (MDC), comprising members from Railways, Railway Protection Force (RPF) and J&K Police.

The proposed posts span from post of Superintendent of Police till lower rung posts in the non-gazetted and class-IV cadre.

Administrative Council also approved creation of 30 (Thirty) posts of different categories in the office of State Election Commission, J&K. The State Election Commission, J&K was constituted in October, 2020 with the appointment of First State Election Commissioner. However, till date except for the post of State Election Commissioner, no post/staff have been created for the Commission and Commission has been functioning with assistance of staff attached from various other Departments. It was considered necessary to create these posts to ensure smooth functioning of State Election Commission.

In yet another important development to give a fillip to enthuse start-up initiatives by youth of Jammu and Kashmir, the Administrative Council approved operational guidelines for the Jammu and Kashmir Startup Policy, 2024-27.

The Administrative Council in its earlier meeting held on February 19, 2024, had approved the said policy.

The Council today approved the operational guidelines which has elaborate provisions related to start-up recognition, access of seed funding-eligibility, process of filing application, short listing and selection, disbursement of seed funds, funding guidelines, start-up awards for encouraging entrepreneurship, incubators and market access for growth of start-ups, networking and collaborations between start-ups.

JKEDI shall be Nodal agency for the policy implementation. These operational guidelines shall nurture and inspire the entrepreneurial talent of Jammu and Kashmir by creating a vibrant and robust Start-up ecosystem. The policy is slated to recognize and facilitate well performing, potential & promising start-ups of Jammu & Kashmir.

The Council gave nod to the revised schemes of J&K Academy of Art, Culture & Languages (JKAACL). It also approved revival of other existing schemes and introduction of new schemes designed to enrich the cultural fabric of Jammu & Kashmir. This would help in supporting the local artists and sustaining the cultural activities in J&K.

Among the revised schemes, the publication of Sheeraza will now be expanded to include Shina, Balti and Bhadarwahi languages, in addition to the existing Dogri, Hindi, Urdu, Punjabi, Pahari, Gojri and English. UT level writers' camp will be organized in both the regions for broad based participation of writers and literary persons. The Academy's own theatrical productions will be showcased not only within the Union Territory but also across India, bringing local stories to a national audience.

In a move to safeguard Jammu & Kashmir's intangible cultural heritage, traditional art forms such as Guri, Sugi, Daastan Goi, Pahari Baar, Gojri Baeth, Musadhe, Hafiz Nagma, etc. will be revived. The musical programs will now include performances of Sufiana and Indian Classical music, ensuring these genres continue to thrive. The revised schemes also emphasize intercultural exchanges and will support international visits by cultural troupes, enhancing the region's global cultural presence.

New schemes introduced include the Guru Shishya Parampara Scheme, aimed at revitalizing the mentor-disciple tradition across various art forms, and the Documentation of Intangible Cultural Heritage initiative, which will focus on systematically archiving the region's oral traditions, performing arts, and traditional craftsmanship. Additionally, the creation of a modern Archival Studio will leverage digital technology to preserve and disseminate Jammu & Kashmir's artistic and cultural expressions.

The Administrative Council also approved the celebration of up to 50 anniversaries annually, honouring prominent figures from Jammu & Kashmir in the fields of art, culture, and languages. To further recognize literary contributions, Best Book Award with a cash prize of Rs 1.00 lakh and Best Translation Award with a cash prize of Rs 75,000 will cover various languages spoken in Jammu & Kashmir. The approval accorded by Administrative Council also has provision for supporting the authors in publication of their books by providing subsidy subject to the condition that monthly income of such author is less than Rs 1.00 lakh. The schemes also include revival of children's music and painting competitions to promote the talent among young minds.

In a substantial boost to the welfare of the artistic community, Rs 50 lakhs has been allocated as seed money for the operationalization of the Artists and Writers' Welfare Fund. Overall, the financial implications of these revisions and new initiatives amount to Rs 5.76 crores, demonstrating the government's commitment to supporting and revitalizing the cultural realm in Jammu & Kashmir.

This comprehensive overhaul of the JKAACL's schemes marks a pivotal moment in the cultural renaissance of Jammu & Kashmir; ensuring that the region's rich heritage is both preserved and dynamically advanced for future generations.

The Administrative Council approved transfer of land measuring 2292 kanals and 2 marlas for different departments.

These include 1212 Kanal 12 Marla situated at Tehsil Dinga Amb, District Kathua, 1070 Kanal situated in Tehsil Samba and Vijaypur; in district Samba in favour of Industries & Commerce Department for establishment of Industrial Estates in these districts. Establishing Industrial estate shall play an important role in the development of the area, create various employment opportunities which shall be in the interest of the public and the government.

Further, Administrative Council also approved transfer of land measuring 02 Kanal 14 Marla situated at Shuhama in District Ganderbal for construction of Police post and 06 Kanal 16 Marla and 03 Sirsai situated at Lar in District Ganderbal for construction of Police Station. This shall ensure proper and secure accommodation for police personnel posted in these areas, to deal with the law & order and other public related issues as well.

Roots of democracy...

a "remarkable decline in terrorism" in the past few years. "No terror outfit has any top leadership left here. Strikes and pelting of stone pelting have been consigned to the pages of history. With dwindling local recruitment into terror ranks and strengthening of people's belief in democracy, our neighbouring country is frustrated. "A country which is unable to provide basic amenities like two square meals to its own citizens, is sending foreign terrorists here to create instability and disturb peace," he said. The L-G said there have been some terror attacks in the Jammu region over the past few months in which several security personnel and civilians lost their lives.

and Kashmir's statehood is restored. Jammu and Kashmir was reorganised as Union Territory after the abrogation of Article 370 in 2019. Welcoming the Election Commission's decision to advance the elections, Farooq Abdullah said, "I thank God for this decision. Earlier, there was speculation about the dates being set between the 20th and 25th, so I am pleased they have been moved up."

Lack of infrastructure...

affected due to a shortage of the supporting staff. "Since the composition of the Bench is now complete, we have no reason to doubt that the Tribunal will start functioning at Jammu without any delay.

"We deem it appropriate to request the senior-most/incharge Judicial Member of the Jammu Bench of the Tribunal to send a status report, inter alia, pointing out the immediate short-term requirements of the Tribunal so that its day-to-day functioning is not hampered in any manner," the bench said.

The bench directed the Registrar (Judicial) to e-mail the order to the senior-most judicial member of the tribunal and also contact him on the phone to ensure that the desired report is sent to the apex court within one week.

During the hearing, the apex court was informed that the Estates Department of the Union Territory administration explored the availability of four private buildings to house the tribunal's Jammu bench.

"Thereafter, a building situated at Channi (Jammu) was shortlisted. The said premises have been approved by the Tribunal's Bench at Jammu. According to the affidavit, two Court rooms and four chambers for the members, office and staff rooms have been completed and other amenities have also been provided in the said new premises," the court noted. The top court was hearing a plea filed by advocate Achal Sharma regarding the appointment of CAT members in Jammu and Kashmir.
