

JKPS Panjtirthi hosts Intra Class English Recitation Competition

Glimpses of Intra Class English Recitation Competition being held at JK Public School Panjtirthi.

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Poetry is the core of literature. To spread the fragrance of poetry amongst the students of Nursery, an Intra Class English Recitation Competition was organised among the toddlers of class Nursery of JK Public School (JKPS) Panjtirthi. The cute poets enjoyed the beauty of expression, thought, feeling, rhyme, rhythm the music and the aptly made props. The main purpose behind conducting such competitions is to build self confidence, develop the oratory skills and self expression. It was amazing to see the little jakkians reciting different English poems confidently and using the attractive props so wisely. The Principal of JKPS Panjtirthi, Suman Banbah expressed, " Children get clarity of the Basic concepts with 'Learning by doing' methods. We organise Various Co-curricular activities to build up self confidence of children. Here, Students are guided to work in groups and pairs, so that they develop listening and speaking skills by communication. It was a visual treat to see the performance and expressions of jakkians. I really appreciate the efforts and Personal touch of the parents which was required to make this event meaningful." The winners were applauded and praised. The Principal rewarded the winners and the participants with beautiful gifts.

DEO Ganderbal briefs political parties on election process

STATE TIMES NEWS
GANDERBAL: In preparation for the upcoming Assembly election in Ganderbal district, political parties were on Tuesday thoroughly briefed on the rules and regulations governing the electoral process during a meeting held under the chairmanship of District Election Officer (DEO) Ganderbal, Shyambir. The meeting, conducted at the VC Room, aimed to ensure a free, fair, and transparent election. During the meeting, the DEO provided a detailed orientation on the election process and emphasized that the Model Code of Conduct (MCC) has been in effect since the election notification was issued. He stressed the importance of strict adherence to the MCC and guidelines of ECI to maintain the integrity of the elections. Master trainers present at the meeting gave comprehensive guidance on expenditure monitoring, highlighting a spending limit of Rs 40 lakhs for election-related activities in each Assembly Constituency. They also explained the procedures for obtaining necessary forms, permissions and schedules to be followed during the election period. The DEO urged all political parties to apply for permissions online through the Suvridha app and recommended that they seek assistance from the DIO NIC for smooth issuance of these permissions. He also advised parties to nominate an Election Expenditure Agent and an authorized person with an official email ID to ensure proper communication with the District Election Office. Additionally, the DEO cautioned against the involvement of government employees in election campaigns, warning that strict action as per ECI guidelines would be taken against any employee found participating in the campaign activities of any political party. Political party representatives were also informed about the various measures being implemented to ensure transparency and efficiency in the electoral process. These measures include stringent monitoring of campaign expenditures and the use of advanced technological tools like eVIGIL, Suvridha, and NCORE, provided by the Election Commission of India for real-time monitoring and swift action in case of violations. The DEO called for the effective cooperation of all political parties to ensure the smooth conduct of the elections. He emphasized the necessity of obtaining prior permission for election campaigning, rallies, and advertisements.

The meeting was attended by the Additional District Development Commissioner, Mushtaq Ahmad Simnani; Additional Deputy Commissioner, Gulzar Ahmad; ACR, Dy. DEO, DIO NIC, DTO, and representatives of various political parties.
