Kite-flying event organised in Reasi to promote voter awareness

STATE TIMES NEWS

REASI: The SVEEP team on Saturday organised a kite flying event in Bhingarh fort Reasi to promote voter awareness among the people.

The highlight of the event was the declaration made by DEO "Mein Voter Vishesh Mahajan" with an appeal to voters to use the tagline till 25th September- the voting day to promote voting behaviour.

The event witnessed participation of first time voters, women, elders, students from schools and colleges. Participants wrote their names on kites before flying them, symbolizing their commitment to participating in the democratic process. They also chanted slogans "Mein Voter hoon" during the event.

"Colourful kites adorned with the word voter represent our commitment towards democracy and spreading awareness about the voting day in Reasi i.e

25th September," he said.

The event was attended by ADDC Sukhdev Singh Samyal, Nodal Officer MCC Kulbhushan Khajuria, Addl. SP Iftekhar Ahmed, Dy. DEO Rakesh Kumar, RO-57 Anshumali Sharma, Nodal Officer SVEEP Sachin Sharma and other district officers.

Election readiness reviewed in Samba

STATE TIMES NEWS

SAMBA: District Election Officer (DEO) Samba, Rajesh Sharma chaired a comprehensive review meeting on Saturday with Returning Officers (ROs), Assistant Returning Officers (AROs), Zonal Magistrates, and Sectoral Magistrates to strategize and discuss preparations for the upcoming General Elections to the Jammu & Kashmir Assembly 2024.

The meeting emphasized ensuring a seamless, fair, and transparent electoral process. DEO Rajesh Sharma outlined the critical pre-poll responsibilities assigned to sectoral officers, which encompass a broad range of tasks. These tasks include mapping polling stations to assess infrastructure adequacy, enforcing the Model Code of Conduct (MCC) strictly, monitoring to prevent unauthorized campaigning, conducting accurate voter enumeration, identifying vulnerable populations, and implementing confidence-building measures.

DEO Sharma also stressed the pivotal role of nodal officers, who are responsible for coordinating closely with law enforcement agencies. As the elections approach, focus will shift to poll eve responsibilities, such as deploying polling teams and ensuring the timely delivery of all necessary materials to designated polling stations.

Nodal officers were instructed to verify the deployment of security forces as per the established plan and report to the control room promptly to confirm that all arrangements are in place. On polling day, nodal officers will be responsible for ensuring a smooth voting process by conducting frequent inspections of polling stations, overseeing the presence and performance of security forces, supervising polling agents' activities, and addressing any issues or complaints swiftly. Additionally, they will oversee the proper handling and sealing of Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs) once polling concludes. In his remarks, DEO Rajesh Sharma reiterated the importance of executing these duties with utmost dedication and diligence to uphold the electoral process's integrity and safeguard the democratic rights of all citizens. He emphasized the crucial role each officer plays in creating an environment conducive to free and fair elections.

As the assembly elections near, the administration remains committed to conducting the electoral process in a transparent, efficient, and impartial manner.

The meeting was attended by ADC Samba, Jagdish Singh, ASP Mukund Tibrewal, and all ROs, AROs, Zonal Magistrates, Sectoral Magistrates, and other officials.

DEO reviews Law and Order in Reasi ahead of elections

STATE TIMES NEWS

REASI: District Election Officer (DEO) Reasi, Vishesh Mahajan chaired a meeting with senior district and police officers here on Saturday to review the law and order situation in the district in preparation for the J&K Assembly Elections 2024. Speaking at the meeting, DEO Mahajan emphasized the critical need for maintaining close coordination between the district administration and the police to ensure peace and security throughout the electoral process. He highlighted the importance of heightened vigilance, particularly in sensitive areas, to prevent any incidents that could disrupt the elections.

In addition, the DEO called for conducting robust exercise on identification of accommodation arrangements for all additional CAPF companies to be deployed for the smooth conduct of elections across all assembly segments of the district.

SSP Reasi Gourav Sikarwar, ADDC Sukhdev Singh Samayal, Addl. SP Reasi Iftekhar Ahmed, Addl. SP Katra Vipin Chandra, Dy. DEO Rakesh Kumar, RO-56 Mazahir Hussain Shah, RO-57 Anshumali Sharma, RO-58 Piyush Dhotra and Other Officers attended the meeting.

Election staff imparted training in Doda

STATE TIMES NEWS

DODA: In preparation for the Jammu and Kashmir Assembly Elections 2024, the District Election Officer Doda on Saturday organized an extensive training session for election staff members here in the Community Hall, DC Office Complex. District Election Officer Harvinder Singh and SSP Mohammad Aslam attended the session.

In his address, Harvinder Singh emphasized the importance of thorough preparation and adherence to election protocols. He discussed ECI guidelines for managing polling stations effectively to ensure a fair, transparent, and orderly voting process. Special emphasis was placed on the training of female election staff, recognizing their vital role in the democratic exercise. "The involvement of female staff in the election process will not only promote gender equality but also encourages greater participation among women voters" the DEO said. The District Election Officer highlighted that active participation of female staff in the election process would inspire all eligible voters to exercise their right to vote and engage in this democratic exercise. This inclusivity is crucial in ensuring that every section of society is represented in the electoral process.

The session concluded with the District Election Officer directing all trainees to strictly follow the guidelines and instructions provided during the training. He reiterated the importance of being vigilant and prepared for any challenges that may arise on election-day. The training session was a significant step towards ensuring that the upcoming elections are conducted smoothly and that every voter in the district is able to cast their vote without any hindrance.

DEO reviews election preparedness in Mendhar

STATE TIMES NEWS

POONCH: District Election Officer (DEO) Poonch, Vikas Kundal on Saturday visited Mendhar Assembly constituency to assess the readiness for the upcoming assembly elections. During the visit, DEO held a comprehensive meeting with the officials to review the ongoing preparations and ensure that all arrangements were in place for a smooth electoral process. He inspected the strong room and election cell to evaluate security measures and logistics. Later he visited Government Higher Secondary School (HSS) Mendhar where he interacted with the first-time voters and members of the Electoral Literacy Club.

The DEO engaged with the young voters encouraging them to actively participate in the democratic process. The DEO signed a canvas to partake in the "My Vote, My Right" signature campaign launched by the school under the aegis of SVEEP (Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation) initiative. Vikas Kundal also held interactive sessions with the Sector Magistrates and other key officials to discuss the election arrangements in detail. Sub-Divisional Magistrate (SDM) Mendhar Imran Rashid Kataria presented a detailed briefing on the preparations highlighting the steps taken to ensure a smooth and fair election. The DEO reviewed the deployment of polling staff, transportation plans and voter facilitation measures thereby emphasizing the importance of flawless execution on Election Day.

The Electoral Literacy Club at GHSS Mendhar organised a special program where the first-time voters expressed their commitment to strengthen the democracy through their active participation in the elections. This initiative is a part of the broader effort to educate and engage young voters ensuring they are well informed and ready to cast their votes.

Vikas Kundal praised the efforts of the officials and the Electoral Literacy Club in fostering a culture of informed voting and encouraged continued efforts to maximise the voter turnout. He reiterated the commitment of district administration to conduct free, fair and transparent elections.
