Modi Govt committed to providing better medical, healthcare services to public: Col Mahan

DDC Chairman Col Mahan Singh (Retd.) inaugurating free medical and surgery camp at Basohli.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

BASOHLI: Col Mahan Singh (Retd.), District Development Council (DDC) Chairman of Kathua, inaugurated a week-long free medical and surgery camp at the Community Health Center (CHC) Basohli.

This camp, organized by the SOS Trust, New Delhi, is led by Dr. T.S Charak, a renowned social activist, surgeon, and son of the soil. The camp aims to deliver comprehensive medical services to the residents of Basohli, ensuring accessible healthcare for all.

The medical camp will see the participation of eminent medical professionals, including the renowned orthopaedic surgeon, Dr. Vikas Padha, who will offer his expertise on the 8th of August, 2024. The SOS Trust has generously arranged for free medicines, lab tests, surgeries, and post-surgery care, providing a much-needed relief to the local populace who often face challenges in accessing quality healthcare services.

During the week-long camp, the Outpatient Department (OPD) facility and the services of the doctors from CHC Basohli will be available to patients. This collaboration aims to enhance the healthcare infrastructure temporarily, bringing specialized medical attention to those in need.

Talking to reporters, Col

Mahan expressed his deep appreciation for the initiative and the noble cause championed by the SOS Trust. He extended his heartfelt gratitude to Dr. T.S Charak, who was present at the event and spearheaded the team of dedicated doctors and technicians.

Col Mahan emphasized the commitment of the Modi government, particularly Dr. Jitendra Singh MoS PMO to providing better medical and healthcare services to the public, highlighting that such initiatives align with the broader goal of improving healthcare accessibility and quality in rural areas.

The inauguration ceremony was attended by several notable personalities, including Dr. Vijay Raina, Chief Medical Officer (CMO) of Basohli, Dr. Amuradha Kermi, Block Medical Officer (BMO) of Basohli, Anil Jarad, Tehsildar of Basohli, social worker Darshan Singh, Capt Raj Singh, and other prominent citizens. Their presence underscored the community's support and the collaborative spirit essential for the success of such health initiatives.

Only NC can fulfill aspirations of people of J&K: Babu Rampaul

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

Samba: National Conference is the only party which can fulfill the aspirations of the people of Jammu and Kashmir and demand restoration of statehood before the assembly elections. This was stated by Babu Rampaul former minister and President Central Zone (Jammu-Samba-Kathua) while addressing a well attended meeting of party workers at Bari Brahmana.

Former Minister and Zonal President JKNC, Babu Ram Paul was the chief guest and Surjeet Singh Manhas Provincial Joint Secretary JKNC, presided over the workers meeting. Whereas Coordinator Jammu District (Urban) and Zonal Secretary JKNC Dr Vikas Sharma was the guest of honour. The workers meeting was organized by Bharat Bhushan, Zonal Secretary JKNC and Co-ordinator Samba district.

Zonal President JKNC, Babu Ram Paul and others after the meeting.

While speaking on the occasion Babu Rampaul came down heavily on the administration for not providing basic amenities to the people and making their lives more miserable. He said that the entire Jammu city and its adjoining areas have been plunged into darkness without power which in turn affects water supply as well. He said that power and water are the basic needs of the people in this scorching heat which this administration has failed to provide despite imposing heavy power bills on gullible citizens after installation of smart meters. He urged upon the people to give a befitting reply to this ruling dispensation through ballot if elections are conducted in J&K. He said that the present dispensation is responsible for snatching away all securities of the people of J&K and downgrading a full-fledged state into UT. He demanded restoration of statehood before the commencement of assembly elections.

Surjeet Singh Manhas, Provincial Joint Secretary, while speaking on the occasion highlighted various issues pertaining to the people. He said that the ruling dispensation has made false and hollow promises with the people and despite a lapse of ten years of their rule they have failed to fulfill their promises. Dr. Vikas Sharma, Zonal Secretary while speaking said that the youth of Jammu and Kashmir is being pushed towards drugs in a planned manner so that they may not demand employment and their families keep on running to save their lives. He said this administration has did nothing to control drugs and to save the young generation. Bharat Bhushan, former Sarpanch Meen Sarkar and Zonal Secretary while addressing the meeting highlighted various issues pertaining to Vijaypur assembly segment and urged upon the workers to reach out to every household to spread the agenda of the party and its leadership. Others who were present in the meeting include, Raja Navid Ahmed, Shakeel Ahmed, Raghnath Singh, Shamsheer Lal, Prasino Devi, Tarsem Paul, Suresh Kumar, Shamsheer Singh, Tulsi Ram and others.
