more students are attracted towards the institution. He impressed upon the officers to start orientation in schools and colleges regarding Skill Development courses offered in the ITI so that maximum students are attracted towards these courses.

On the occasion, the Advisor remarked that the Skill Development Department has a pivotal role to play in providing skill development to overcome the problem of unemployment in Jammu and Kashmir:

Asserting that education and skill building are the core means for empowering youth, Advisor Bhatnagar directed the concerned officers to work with utmost efforts to ensure empowerment of youth by way of imparting requisite proficiency.

During the visit, the Advisor was informed that this institute was established under Prime Minister's Reconstruction Programme and is imparting training to students in nine trades.

During the visit, several locals also met the Advisor and brought several developmental issues into his notice. The Advisor while interacting with them, assured them that all of their genuine issues will be resolved on priority.

Later, Advisor Bhatnagar visited Higher Secondary School (HSS) Pahalgam and took stock of functioning of the institute.

He inspected the classrooms, laboratories, library and other facilities of the institute. He directed the concerned officers to provide all possible help to the students being imparted education through online mode.

The Advisor also assessed the present status of vaccination among staff and students and directed the Principal of the institute for 100% vaccination of the staff as well as the students above 18 years and strict adherence to CAB for the timely resuming of classwork in the institute.

Sealing of shopping complexes ordered for violating Covid SOPs

STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: In order to ensure adherence to Covid-19 Appropriate Behavior in Srinagar, the Deputy Commissioner Srinagar Mohammad Ajiaz Asad on Saturday conducted surprise inspections of various markets of Srinagar City.

The inspections were conducted in the wake of rising covid cases and to have firsthand appraisal of how traders, shopkeepers and people in general are following Covid SOPs in market places, besides, sensitizing business community about adopting CAB strictly to prevent spread of virus.

During the inspection, the DC ordered sealing of some business establishments/shopping complexes for violating Covid-19 guidelines and SOPs.

During the inspection of various City markets including Poloview, Regal Chowk, Residency road, Ghanta Ghar, Amira Kadal and other adjoining areas, the Deputy Commissioner also found various customers and salesmen without masks.

The DC along with other officers counseled both customers and members of business community and distributed masks among salesmen and other work force. He urged them to follow Covid SOPs in letter and spirit such as wearing of masks, maintaining social distancing, and other practices. Meanwhile, Deputy Commissioner has appealed people of Srinagar to follow Covid Appropriate Behavior to prevent spread of Covid-19 infection in the district. He directed all enforcement wings to take strict action against the violators. SSP Srinagar, Sandeep Chowdhary, Additional Deputy Commissioner Srinagar, Dr Syed Hanif Ballhi, Assistant Commissioner Revenue, Tehsildar South, and other concerned officers were accompanied the DC.
