STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: JK Public School Panjtirthi took an initiative to thank the great parenting of the parents of the students of JKPS, which has shaped up the Jakians life in such a beautiful way. The reason for celebrating this day is to thank, acknowledge and make the parents feel special for all that are doing for their children.

The parents of the Jakians joined and virtually participated in the celebration by sharing their views, beliefs, wishes, desires, passion, experiences very confidently and beautifully through short videos. The Principal of JKPS Panjtirthi Suman Banbhal said, "The bringing up of a child in a proper way is really a great responsibility. We have celebrated Parent's day to promote family commitment and to honour the parents for their unconditional love and support." She added, "A Million words would be too short to thank all the Parents for their love, care, wholehearted participation, lovely performances and cooperation. It is a wonderful gesture on their part. It's a privilege to make them feel special".
