He said that the 12 services made online last year have brought great relief to the people. Services like duplicate registration to replacement of driving license are being provided to common people through a hassle-free process. The Lt Governor observed that many rules have been simplified to provide paperless, cashless, faceless facilities to the people. It will address the concerns of thousands of citizens and contactless services can be availed without going to RTO.

The various services of MVD made online and simplified include contactless application for Learners' license, hassle-free quick registration process at dealer level, no inspection of newly built vehicles at RTO, besides others.

While flagging off the new fleet of buses, the Lt Governor said that it would provide better

India should initiate dialogue with Taliban: Farooq

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: Urging New Delhi to start talks with the Taliban, National Conference President Farooq Abdullah on Saturday said India has invested billions in Afghanistan and has no way of engaging with the new regime in the war-torn country.

"The Taliban is now in power in Afghanistan. India spent billions on various projects during the previous regime in Afghanistan. We should talk to the current Afghan regime. When we have invested so much in the country, what is the harm in having a relationship with them?" Abdullah asked, as reported by a Srinagar based news agency.
