

NBF welcomes launch of portal to address grievances of Migrants' immovable properties

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Nirbhay Bharat Foundation has welcomed the online portal launched the other day by the Lt Governor Manoj Sinha for time bound redressal of grievances related to Kashmir migrants' immovable properties in Kashmir Valley.

In a statement issued to media here today, Tarun Uppal who is the Chairman of Nirbhay Bharat Foundation said that indeed there is a dire need to rectify the mistakes of successive regimes of erstwhile state as stated by the Lieutenant Governor himself. He said that it is an open secret that Kashmir where people of all communities were living in harmony became victim of the terrorist and separatist onslaught from across the border as a result of which lakhs of Hindus, Sikhs and Muslims had to flee to other parts of the nation leaving their hearths and homes behind. Castigating the successive regimes in the erstwhile State of Jammu and Kashmir, Uppal said that these regimes can't be absolved of their liability in this regard as they proved utter failure in stopping the distress sales. The NBF Chairman said that presently the left over properties of Kashmiri migrants have been encroached by miscreants, that too mostly by (once upon a time) good neighbours. Tarun Uppal said this initiative will undoubtedly put an end to the plight of the migrants including Hindus, Sikhs and Muslims, who have been suffering and are living as refugees in their own country since 1989-90.
