Glimpses of Grandparents Day celebrations at Toddlers' World, a unit of JK Public School Kunjwani.

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: God gave us family to teach us about love especially of Grandparents who show us what unconditional, child-like love happens to be. We are part of our grandparents and they're part of us - that kind of love is special. To treasure this amazing bond of love, Toddlers' World of JK Public School Kunjwani celebrated Grandparents Day where all the grandparents were invited to witness a scintillating programme presented by their grandchildren.

The young children expressed their love, respect and gratitude towards their grandparents through various dance performances, songs and skits.

The dance and music performances by the little kids held everyone captive. A role play was composed especially for the grandparents to honor the love and sacrifices they make for their families and to create awareness among the children.

The children were really excited to see their grand dad or grand mom participating in the games and cheering them wholeheartedly.

The Chief Guest, Hemraj Pakhru, Joint Director School Education Jammu graced the function and applauded the efforts made by grandparents, teachers and the tiny tots.

The grandparents were felicitated. Gifts were given for various games in which the grandparents actively participated with exuberance. The grandparents acknowledged Toddlers' World for organizing this event to honor them and to give them an opportunity to spend some happy and relaxed moments with their grandchildren.

Raj Daluja, Chairman JK Educational Society applauded the toddlers and staff for organizing such a mesmerizing show. Presence of motherly figure Shashi Chaudhary, Director JK Educational Society boosted the morale of the tender toes. The Vice Principal Shashi Rattan thanked every grandparent for their presence and for their continuous support and guidance to children.
