

DC Jammu discusses logistics for Army's Agniveer recruitment rally

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Deputy Commissioner Jammu, Avny Lavasa on Saturday chaired a series of meetings to discuss the preparedness and assistance required for Army Agniveer recruitment rally, implementation of Jal Jeevan Mission and District Employment plan.

At the outset, the Deputy Commissioner was apprised that Army Agniveer recruitment rally will be organised at Zorawar Stadium, Sunjwan Military Station, from 7th to 22nd of October' 22.

The DC asked the police department to make foolproof security arrangements to avoid any kind of chaos on the recruitment day. The PHE department was asked to make arrangements for drinking water, including deployment of water tankers at the venue, while PDD was asked to make provision for proper barricading of the venue. She also asked the traffic department to deploy an adequate number of traffic men to regulate and facilitate smooth flow of traffic in case of heavy rush of aspirants. The JMC was asked to make arrangements for mobile toilets, while the Fire & Emergency department was asked to install fire extinguishers at the venue.

The Deputy Commissioner directed the Officers to ensure all related arrangements in advance and work in close coordination for the smooth conduct of the recruitment process.

Regarding JJM, the DC was informed that 272 projects have been taken up under the Mission across the district and more than Rs 1200 crore has been allotted for this purpose. It was also informed that out of 272 schemes, 266 have been tendered. The DC also reviewed the District Employment Plan and implementation of self employment schemes. The Deputy Commissioner asked the officer to contact the aspirants registered during the fairs and aware them regarding the self employment schemes including other centrally sponsored schemes for swa-rozgar.

She asked the concerned officers to rope in maximum number of registered beneficiaries and provide them assistance so that they can earn their livelihood.

Panel discussion on drug de-addiction organised

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Under the guidance and supervision of Director School Education Jammu, Dr. Ravi Shankar Sharma, Counselling Cell, DSEJ on Saturday organized a panel discussion on Drug De-addiction as a part of month long campaign on NashaMukt J&K Abhiyan. Vinay Kumar Sharma (SSP ANTF J&K), Dr. Abhishek Chowhan (Psychiatrist GMC Jammu), MsJasmeenKaurr (Clinical Psychologist) and Dr. Romesh Kumar(Head Counselling Cell,DSEJ) were the Panelists for the programme.

In the discussion, the speakers unequivocally stressed upon the need for creating awareness regarding drugs abuse, their long term harmful effects on physical and mental health especially among the students, Counseling and de-addiction mechanism so that they can prevent themselves from its menace. Joint Director JKS, MsSubha Mehta gave the introductory address, thereby stressing upon the need and importance of creating awareness on drug abuse among the students. She emphasized the role of teachers as most prominent in the campaign. She further appreciated the counseling cell, DSEJ for their tireless efforts in creating awareness among students, teachers and other stakeholders. SSP Vinay Kumar Sharma highlighted the role of police in curbing this menace, mechanism being followed by the Police Department, course of punishment in case of selling and consumption of drugs, and NDPS Act. He further advocated that the problem can completely be eradicated only by combined efforts of all members of society. Dr. AbhishekChauhan discussed various types of drugs, signs and symptoms of a drug addict, harmful effects of drug intake on physical and mental health and the type of treatments available. He further added that drugs can prove to be a gateway for many terminal and deadly diseases.

Jasmeen Kour (Clinical Psychologist) discussed the various causes of drug addiction, role of a counsellor in drug de-addiction and various therapies that are being used.

Dr. Romesh Kumar, Head counseling cell, DSEJ discussed different interventions that are already being implemented at school level like implementation of TOFEI guidelines, constitution of Praheri clubs in all Govt. HS/HSS and also about counseling resource rooms in all schools of Jammu Division. He further appealed for positive engagement of the students (games, sports, yoga etc i) so as to channelize their energy and take care of their mental health. The Panel discussion was conducted by Ms. Preeti Sharma by asking varied questions from the panelists on the given topic, whereas Ms. BinduKumari, Member counseling cell, DSEJ presented formal votes of thanks.
